This volume investigates how historical, institutional, and cultural forces have shaped children's relationship to gender, the pivotal role children have played in the construction of gendered categories, as well as children's responses to these forces and constructions. The book is divided into six sections: Responding to Gendered Histories and Presents of Policing, Pathologization and Trauma; Images of and Imaginings for Trans, Non-Binary, and Queer Youth's Futures; Global Perspectives on Training and Assimilating Future Citizens; Gender Development in Material and Digital Cultures; Shifting and Persisting Gendered Representations in Cultural Landscapes; and Approaching Issues of Gender and Childhood from Adult Perspectives.
