After being left at the altar by his long time girlfriend Gigi Romano hasn't been quite the same. He's vowed to never have his heart broken again and plunges himself into a world of nameless and faceless women. Ten years later his player ways are still strong but other areas of his life are growing weak especially his relationship with his son. Gigi continually promises to change his ways but always finds himself succumbing to his sexual desires whether it be with the sultry Diana or levelheaded Melissa. However when Qui returns to New York City Gigi believes that his first true love will be able to change him for the better that is until he meets his Mystery Woman. Allowing her to slip through his grasp once Gigi swears that if given the chance again he'll give her everything her heart desires. However when they meet again through a chance encounter Gigi realizes that his all might not be enough. Life hasn't been easy for Jade Romano either. Fresh out of a divorce Jade finds herself the eye candy of every woman in New York City except for the one she really wants her boss Lia. With the face of a Creole angel the body of a bombshell and the vocals to match it's no wonder that Lia's everything Jade could ever want. There's only one problem Lia can't stand her. Although Jade finds herself at the end of Lia's cool glares and catty ways it doesn't stop her from wondering what's underneath Lia's marble facade. When she does have a peek it's enough to pull her in completely. The problem. Her ex wife Brandy. Armed with a poisonous secret and a deadly desire to take back what's hers Brandy barrels back into Jade's life with promises to wreak havoc unless she returns to the place where the pain started Home. Every love affair comes with a price and Gigi must pay for the actions of his past while Jade suffers for the choices she'll have to make in the future. There's no question that either of the Romano children are strong enough to handle it the question is in the end is it all worth it.

The Koryak Waldemar Jochelson, 2016-04-26 Since the 18th century researchers and scientists have traveled the peninsula of Kamchatka in the Russian Far East. Many of them were of German origin and had been commissioned by the Russian government to perform specific tasks. Their exhaustive descriptions and detailed reports are still considered some of the most valuable documents on the ethnography of the indigenous peoples of that part of the world. These works inform us about living conditions and particular ways of natural resource use at various times and provide us with valuable background information for current assessment. As the first profound anthropological descriptions of that region the publications of the Jesup North Pacific Expedition undertaken in the first years of the 20th century marked the beginning of a new era of research in Russia. They represented a shift of the already existing transnational research networks toward North America. Jochelson's work The Koryak was an important milestone for Russian and North American anthropology that provides to this day a unique contribution to thoroughly understanding the cultures of the North Pacific rim.
