

KINGFISHER

Your wings are made of precious stones,
Your chest like fire - burning bright,
Flashy in your brightest tones -
Electrifying flash of light;

With sharpened dagger on a perch,
Sit patiently, observe your prey,
Then with one fast, decisive lurch,
You dive across the waterway;

In one fell swoop, you snatch and steal
The fish - their silver scales your prize,
You swallow it and then conceal
Yourself in watery disguise;

Your eye - a secret of your aim,
Most powerful your mighty wing;
No bird can beat you at your game,
The noble bird - You ARE the king!

Kingfisher Of Poems About Love:

The Kingfisher Book of Poems about Love Roger McGough, 1997 Edited by one of Britain's best known contemporary poets with pictures by the award winning illustrator of Walking the Bridge of Your Nose this book of love poetry features poets such as Ogden Nash W H Auden T S Eliot and Maya Angelou Kingfisher Ildiko Szabo, 2019-09-15 Kingfishers are a stunning sight to behold The dash and verve of these cosmopolitan birds has been admired for millennia appearing in creation myths imperial regalia and cultural iconography and they were once valued as highly as gold Artists used their iridescent feathers in Tian tsui an iconic style of Chinese fine art for more than 2 400 years The magnificent temples at Angkor Wat in Cambodia owe their existence in part to the great wealth generated by the live kingfisher trade from the Indochina Peninsula As well as a muse kingfishers have influenced philosophers playwrights and artists from the Roman poet Ovid to Carl Jung Charles Darwin and others while more recently bio mimicry engineers have turned to kingfishers for inspiration This lavishly illustrated book delves into the origins and diversity of the more than 120 species of kingfishers from the burly kookaburras to the diminutive birds that daringly pluck spiders off webs defining their characteristics their differences their lifestyles and their cultural significance around the world Page to Stage James Carter, 2013-05-13 An exciting and creative approach that links literacy and oracy in a way that children will enjoy Performing poetry is also proven to boost self esteem Includes Audio downloadable resources with recordings of published poets and children performing their own work Activities to develop speaking and listening skills Model poems from which to work Guidelines for progressing through the writing and performance process A three stage model preparation writing performing The Complete Poems Robert Graves, 2015-01-29 Graves described poetry as his ruling passion and for him love was the main theme and origin of true poems He created a rich mythology where love fear fantasy and the supernatural play an essential role Intimate yet universal passionate yet precise their brilliant alchemy of realism and magic made Graves's poems some of the finest of the last century In this edition the poems appear without critical apparatus or commentary The volume represents in its purest form the achievement of Graves's seventy productive years The Kingfisher Book of Poems about Love Roger McGough (comp), 2000 The concept of how strongly love connects us all through time and place across cultures and generations is reflected in this exhilarating collection of poems From the thrill of first love to the pain of rejection in the warmth of friendship and the strength of family ties as well as in the fundamental bond between humanity and the earth love is central to our lives For junior high readers Selected Poems of Jules Breton Jules Breton, 2024-08-27 Vincent van Gogh loved both art and poetry He especially loved the nineteenth century Realist art and French poetry of Jules Adolphe Aime Louis Breton 1827 1906 Both Breton's art and poetry focused on the French countryside peasant themes and at times his Christian faith Van Gogh copied a number of Breton's poems and sent them in letters to his brother Theo and to Anthon van Rappard an artist friend He also promised to send Breton's complete book of poems Les

Champs et la mer The Fields and the Sea to Theo This book includes Breton's original poems Van Gogh copied with translations and commentary on each poem by the translator Most of Breton's poems were dedicated to fellow artists or poets These metrical translations reflect the rhyme and meter of the original French poems Breton became well known in America for his 1884 oil on canvas Le chant de l'alouette The Song of the Lark Henry Field Memorial Collection The Art Institute of Chicago It was exhibited at the Chicago World's Fair in 1934 where First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt stated it was her own favorite painting This book's aim is to introduce Breton's poetry to the English speaking world For the Love of Poetry Nancy Lee Cecil, 1997 Grade level 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 e i s t Love is the Meaning Ann Lewin, 2013-01-07 Love is the meaning is the phrase chosen by the mystic 14th century writer Julian of Norwich to encapsulate all that had been revealed to her in the series of visions that led her to write one of world's greatest spiritual books her Revelations of Divine Love which continues to inspire countless readers today Its everyday imagery and warm intimacy set it apart from other great spiritual classics Ann Lewin uses its homely qualities to provide the basis for an exploration of our own experiences of the spiritual life and as we search for answers to life's big questions How can we hold fast to the truth of God's love in the face of suffering and disaster Does prayer change anything How can Julian help us to speak freshly about God to our world What do we do when God seems far away and silent Can we actually believe that all will be well as Julian did These and other questions are explored here International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets A Hundred Love Poems from Old Korea, 2021-11-22 Korea's traditional love poetry is little known in the West This anthology contains examples of all genres vernacular to long lyrical poems A witty informative commentary links the poems and sets them in context Love, Amy Amy Clampitt, 2007 This extraordinary collection of letters sheds light on one of the most important postwar American poets and on a creative woman's life from the 1950s onward Amy Clampitt was an American original a literary woman from a Quaker family in rural Iowa who came to New York after college and lived in Manhattan for almost forty years before she found success or before it found her at the age of 63 with the publication of The Kingfisher Her letters from 1950 until her death in 1994 are a testimony to her fiercely independent spirit and her quest for various kinds of truth religious spiritual political and artistic Written in clear limpid prose Clampitt's letters illuminate the habits of imagination she would later use to such effect in her poetry She offers with wit and intelligence an intimate and personal portrait of life as an independent woman recently arrived in New York City She recounts her struggle to find a place for herself in the world of literature as well as the excitement of living in Manhattan In other letters she describes a religious conversion and then a gradual religious disillusionment and her work as a political activist Clampitt also reveals her passionate interest in and fascination with the world around her She conveys her delight in a variety of day to day experiences and sights reporting on trips to Europe the books she has read and her walks in nature After struggling as a novelist Clampitt turned to poetry in her fifties and was eventually published in the New Yorker In the last decade of her life she appeared like a meteor on the national literary scene lionized and honored In letters to Helen Vendler Mary Jo Salter and others she discusses her poetry as well as her surprise at her newfound success and the long overdue satisfaction she obviously felt along with gratitude for her recognition Worlds Apart Howard Goldblatt,1990-04-30 Thirteen selected papers from an international conference on contemporary Chinese literature held near Gunzburg Bavaria in June July 1986 constitute both a record of literary writings from the PRC Hong Kong and Taiwan as well as an overview of the broader international role of Chinese writing i Peony in Love Lisa See,2011-05-04 Peony has neither seen nor spoken to any man other than her father a wealthy Chinese nobleman Nor has she ever ventured outside the cloistered women s quarters of the family villa As her sixteenth birthday approaches she finds herself betrothed to a man she does not know but Peony has dreams of her own Her father engages a theatrical troupe to perform scenes from The Peony Pavilion a Chinese epic opera in their garden amidst the scent of ginger green tea and jasmine Unmarried girls should not be seen in public says Peony s mother but her father allows the women to watch from behind a screen Here Peony catches sight of an elegant handsome man and is immediately bewitched So begins her unforgettable journey of love desire sorrow and redemption Even Hockey Players Read David Booth,2002 Whitehots May 14 04 The Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language The Bookman Treasury of Living Poets Arthur St. John Adcock,1928

Lyrical Ballads and Other Poems William Wordsworth,Samuel Taylor Coleridge,2003 Lyrical Ballads constituted a quiet poetic revolution both in its attitude to its subject matter and its anti conventional language This volume contains all of Lyrical Ballads with Wordsworth s preface of 1800 1802 and a wide range of both poets other work across their poetic careers The B. S. Johnson - Zulfikar Ghose Correspondence Vanessa Guignery,2015-04-01 From 1959 to 1973 the writers B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose regularly wrote letters to each other in which they discussed their own work and literary preoccupations They exchanged early drafts of poems short stories plays and novels and their correspondence contains detailed comments and extended analyses of these texts as well as illuminating reflections on literature criticism poetics and aesthetics Though much of the correspondence is an extended literary discussion it also contains moments of personal revelation jokes and anecdotes so that the letters with their surprising asides are enjoyable to read even as they inform with their biographical and intellectual content The two authors also frequently refer to the university poetry journals and literary magazines they contributed to or edited and they write about the poetry meetings they attended and the writers they met or read Their involvement in literary groups and their dealings with publishers editors and agents are indicative of the publishing mechanisms of the time This correspondence thus not only provides insight into the work of both B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose but also conjures up a comprehensive picture of the London literary world of the 1960s Landscaping Postcoloniality. The Dissemination of Cameroon Anglophone Literature Joyce Ashuntantang,2009 This is a foundational text on the production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature The Republic of Cameroon is a bilingual country with English and French as the official languages Ashuntantang shows that the pattern of production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature is not only framed by the minority status of English and English speaking Cameroonians within the Republic of Cameroon but is also a reflection of a postcolonial reality in Africa where mostly African literary texts published by western multi national corporations are assured wide international accessibility and readership This book establishes that in spite of these setbacks Anglophone Cameroon writers have produced a corpus of work that has enriched the genres of prose poetry and drama and that these texts deserve a wider readership Selections from the Poems of Percy Bysshe Shelley Percy Bysshe Shelley,1915
