stories and make their voices heard In this provocative rereading of the classic texts of the feminist literary canon Carla Kaplan takes a hard look at the legacy of feminist criticism and argues that important features of feminism s own canon have been overlooked in the rush to rescue and identify texts African American women s texts she demonstrates often dramatize their distrust of their readers their lack of faith in the cultural conversation through strategies of self silencing and self talk At the same time she argues the homoerotics of women s writing has too often gone unremarked Not only does longing for an ideal listener draw women s texts into a romance with the reader but there is an erotic excess which is part of feminist critical recuperation itself Drawing on a wide range of resources from sociolinguistics and anthropology to literary theory Kaplan s highly readable study proposes a new model for understanding and representing talk She supplies fresh readings of such feminist classics as Jane Eyre The Yellow Wallpaper Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Their Eyes Were Watching God and The Color Purple revealing how their erotics of talk works as a rich political allegory and form of social critique The Hand at Work Susanne Strätling,2021-12-14 Art New Vision This formula shaped the avant garde With moving images abruptly expanding the boundaries of the visible world new printing techniques triggering a pictorial turn in graphic art and literature becoming almost inseparable from visual media we still regard the avant garde as heyday for modernism s obsession with the eye But what are the blind spots of this optocentrism Focusing on the gestures of giving touching showing and handcrafting this study examines key scenes of tactile interaction between subject and artifact Hand movements manual maneuvers and manipulations challenge optics and expose the crises of a visually dominated perspective on the arts The readings of this book call for a revision of an optically obscured aesthetics and poetics to include haptic experience as an often overlooked but pivotal part of the making as well as the perception of literature and the arts "The Bees" M.
