One World and Our Knowledge of It J.F. Rosenberg,2012-12-06 Philosophy Aristotle is well known to have said begins in wonder So of course does everything else Astronomy begins in wonder at the moving lights in the sky biology in wonder at the living creatures of the earth psychology in wonder at the intricacies and eccentricities of our distinctively human form of life So at best wonder is only a necessary condition for philosophy What is peculiar about philosophers is what we are inclined to wonder about We wonder about everything In particular we wonder about astronomy and biology and psychology and about philosophy about whether and how such disciplines are possible and crucially about whether and how such disciplines fit together We don't just wonder about everything We wonder about everything all at once Philosophers are general practitioners Things stand ill with our discipline today There was quite recently at large in America an occasional publication under the title Jobs in Philosophy The title rested upon a confusion and the publication furthered the confusion upon which it rested For it did not in fact list jobs in philosophy It couldn't
