Marriage and Sexuality in Medieval and Early Modern Iberia Eukene Lacarra

Lanz, 2002-06-14 First published in 2002. This fascinating collection of essays examines the politics of gender and desire in premodern Iberia. Eukene Lacarra Lanz brings together a group of noted specialists in Arabic as well as Castilian, Catalan, and other Romance languages to investigate the changes that affected marriage and sexuality over the course of the millennium from approximately 650 to 1650 A.D. The contributors utilise a variety of literary and philosophical texts, legal documents, and medical treatises to explore a broad range of topics such as shrew taming, wedding rituals, wet nursing, cross-dressing, sodomy, and moral pornography. The volume's interdisciplinary approach traces the origins and genealogies of the predominant discourses on these subjects that engaged the minds of medieval and premodern writers, moralists, politicians, and scientists alike. Marriage and sexuality in Medieval and Early Modern Iberia offers a rich history and insightful analysis of some of the central themes of Hispanic literary and cultural life.

Woman's Body, Woman's Word Fedwa Malti-Douglas, 2019-01-15

Woman's voice and body are closely entwined in the Arabo-Islamic tradition, argues Fedwa Malti-Douglas in this pioneering book. Spanning the ninth through twentieth centuries and covering a wide range of texts from courtly anecdote to mystical and philosophical treatises, from works of geography to autobiography, this study reveals how woman's access to literary speech has remained mediated through her body. Malti-Douglas first analyzes classical texts, both well-known works like The Thousand and One Nights and others still ignored in the West, in which the female voice, often associated with wit or trickery of a sexual nature, is subordinated to the male scribe. Showing how early Arabo-Islamic discourse continues to influence contemporary Arabic writing, she maintains that today feminist writers of novels, short stories, and autobiography must work through this tradition, even if they subvert or reject it. In the end, whereas woman in the classical period speaks through the body, woman in the modern period often turns corporeality into a literary weapon to achieve power over discourse. Fedwa Malti-Douglas is Professor of Arabic and Comparative Literature at the University of Texas at Austin. Her books include Structures of Avarice: The Bukhala in Medieval Arabic Literature (Leiden) and Blindness and Autobiography: Al-Ayyam of Taha Husayn (Princeton). Originally published in 1991, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Pornography of Representation Susanne Kappeler, 2013-05-03 This book marks a radical and powerful intervention in traditional arguments about pornography Kappeler re-examines the artistic distinctions between fantasy and reality pornography and erotica and challenges the legal definition of obscenity as well as the intellectual defence of freedom of expression By linking images of actual violence with the imaginative portrayal of women in the realm of the aesthetic she establishes vital connections between modes of representation and social forms of power and domination It is essential reading for anyone concerned with issues of pornography and sexual politics and related debates in literary criticism and cultural studies Performative Bodies, Hybrid Tongues Julian Vigo, 2010 This book reconsiders the body in literature and makes a case for visual representation as a physical and gesticulative domain for rethinking the constructions of gender nationalism and sexuality Examining literary production from the eleventh century until the present the author argues that the body in contemporary North Africa and Latin America serves as a physical and symbolic terrain upon which sexual textual national racial and linguistic identities are vectored and through which postcolonial and hegemonic antagonisms of power and identity are resolved Rather than embracing third world identity as a residual repository of western thought colonization and linguistic infusion the author suggests that the paradigm of cultural identity in the Maghreb and Latin America is best understood through an examination of the emergent corporeal articulations of subjectivity prevalent in these literatures and visual cultures The text examines the body as a critical landscape through which the various discourses of nationhood gender and sexuality converge in order to construct a reading of the social that neither amasses subjectivity as singular under the rubric of the third world nor couches the other within static notions of gendered sexual or racial identities Eros and Sexuality in Islamic Art Francesca Leoni, Mika Natif, 2013 Dedicated to the topic of eroticism and sexuality in the visual production of the medieval and early modern Muslim world this volume offers new insights and methodological models that extend our understanding of erotic and sexual subjects in the Islamic tradition The essays shed light on the diverse socio cultural milieus of erotic images on the motivations underlying their production and on the responses generated by their circulation

Representing Minorities Soumia Boutkhil, Larbi Touaf, 2009-01-14 The papers in this volume include not only the traditional view of what constitutes a minority but also any individual or group recalcitrant and reluctant not to say resistant to the generalized lobotomy operated by the rampant uniformisation of cultures around the world For in the ruins of the end of history and its context of violence and Manichean politics any opposition to the general consensus could be dismissed as anti historical and atavistic The objective of the book is precisely to counter such rhetoric and underscore the necessity of cultural diversity and the right to difference This book contains what can amount to a critical response to the current context of confusion surrounding the postmodern condition that arguably dominates most societies It stresses the issue of ethics not only in world politics but also in literature and criticism which are the main focus here In fact the interest in minority issues is in itself an ethical concern that contributes to give substance to the idea that postmodernity opens the gates for the long suppressed identities and sensibilities to emerge and demand recognition This volume intends therefore to contribute to the recent ethical turn that seems to take place in scholarship worldwide Operated mainly by what is referred to as postcolonial studies this shift turned literary criticism and cultural studies into the site where a sense of literature can be envisioned that is not at all universalist or reflecting the hegemonic temptations of the new world order It seeks to present a patchwork of minor literatures in the sense that besides the major literatures languages there are myriads of minor voices that express dissimilarity oftentimes under the umbrella of those major languages and literatures themselves Islam and Social Work

Sara Ashencaen Crabtree, Fatima Husain, Basia Spalek, 2016-12-07 This unique textbook enables social work practitioners to gain a deeper understanding of how Islamic principles inform and influence the lives of Muslim populations Designed to support work with families and faith communities this completely revised and updated edition examines religious precepts cosmologies philosophies and daily practices while acknowledging cultural variants and population heterogeneity It includes a comprehensive update of the research literature international case studies and new sections on religious extremism and ageing and end of life This is the only book specifically on social work with Muslim communities and provides an essential toolkit for culturally sensitive social work practice Fatema Mernissi for Our Times Minoo Moallem, Paola

Bacchetta, 2025-03-17 This volume pays tribute to the late Fatema Mernissi a pioneering feminist sociologist and writer whose work profoundly influenced feminist and civic activism in Muslim and Arab societies and beyond Bringing together an international group of scholars the book explores pressing issues of women gender and sexuality in Muslim and Arab countries and their diasporas engaging in a dynamic dialogue with Mernissi's work The collection examines Mernissi's contributions through three key axes her challenge to uneven transnational geopolitical power relations her unique approach to Islamic feminism positing compatibility between egalitarian interpretations of Islam and social justice and her feminist decolonial approach that both deconstructs hegemonic knowledge frames and produces new forms of knowledge With original essays by scholars of diverse disciplinary backgrounds including anthropology sociology development studies queer studies literature and regional studies this volume offers fresh perspectives on Mernissi's influential ideas Each contributor engages with Mernissi's work using her feminist theoretical framework while extending it to the exigencies of contemporary questions of gender and sexuality in the Middle East and North Africa Theorizing Justice in Contemporary

Arabo-Islamic Philosophy Kaouthar Karoui, 2023-12-04 What is justice from the perspective of contemporary Arabo-Islamic philosophy Kaouthar Karoui takes a transcultural approach open to different philosophical traditions and seeks to decenter Western notions of normativity She focuses on two thinkers namely the feminist Fatema Mernissi d 2015 and Mohammed Arkoun d 2010 a well known critic of hegemony and orthodoxy She situates their thinking within current debates among Arab thinkers and brings their ideas into dialog with Western political philosophy This study thus challenges stereotypes about the

Arab Islamic world by discussing postcolonial theories of gender justice political freedom and religion Gender and Identity in North Africa Abdelkader Cheref, 2010-08-30 Literary fiction has always provided an outlet for social and political critique In the writing of key North African women authors the dissection of Maghrebi society is at the very heart of the narratives Here Abdelkader Cheref charts the rise of postcolonial literature written by women from the Maghreb and provides the first comparative analysis of three of the region s most prominent contemporary authors Assia Djeba Algeria Leila Abouzeid Morocco and Souad Guellouz Tunisia These writers are united in their depictions of a post independence socio political malaise in the Maghreb their explorations of marginalised women s voices and their own quests for their voices to be heard beyond the rigid constraints of patriarchy This book is essential comparative reading for students and researchers wishing to understand the connections between literature history and culture in postcolonial North Africa The Making of Heterosexualities Vulca Fidolini, 2022-11-10 Drawing on an ethnographic study on young Moroccan immigrants in Europe France and Italy this book analyses the hegemonic power of heteronormativity and its plural expressions It tries to give an answer to the following main questions How the normative power of heterosexuality is socially constructed among men How and why heterosexuality is interpreted as the socially appropriate norm to be recognised as a true man by other men Attention is focused on those people who use heteronormativity in order to produce and reproduce heterosexual identifications through performing hegemonic masculinities The objective is to deconstruct the normality of heterosexuality and the ways through which it is commonly used as a normative reference to talk about sexual life as well as to build masculinities especially within homosocial relationships An enlightening book consisting of a rich empirical material and theoretical analysis this volume will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers who are interested in fields such as Sociology Anthropology and Gender Studies
