Experiencing Art Around Us Text:

Experiencing Art Around Us Thomas Buser, 2006 Investigating the nature of art and the uses of art in society EXPERIENCING ART AROUND US teaches students how to understand critically judge and experience art This mainstream art appreciation text discusses the visual elements of art such as line light color and space and the principles of design that all artists use examines not only the traditional visual media of painting sculpture and architecture but also more recent areas such as urban design and preservation photography and film and probes the cultural institutions that affect contemporary artistic activity Integrating Western and non Western art EXPERIENCING ART AROUND US exposes students to a wide variety of artistic works from around the world yet emphasizes works in public collections that students can see featuring a diverse array of female African American and Latino artists as well as up to date coverage of the contemporary art scene Analyzing a single work from four different points of view teaching critical thinking skills this text offers students a wider variety of study aids than any other text on the market Experiencing Art Arthur Shimamura, 2015-04-15 How do we appreciate a work of art Why do we like some artworks but not others Is there no accounting for taste Awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship to explore connections between art mind and brain Shimamura considers how we experience art In a thoughtful and entertaining manner the book explores how the brain interprets art by engaging our sensations thoughts and emotions It describes interesting findings from psychological and brain sciences as a way to understand our aesthetic response to art Beauty disgust surprise anger sadness horror and a myriad of other emotions can occur as we experience art Some artworks may generate such feelings rather quickly while others depend on thought and knowledge Our response to art depends largely on what we know from everyday knowledge about the world from our cultural backgrounds and from personal experience Filled with artworks from many traditions and time points Experiencing Art offers insightful ways of broadening one's approach and appreciation of art Liturgical Spirituality Philip H. Pfatteicher, 1997-04-01 Well known liturgical scholar and writer Philip Pfatteicher turns his attention in this book to liturgical spirituality as distinct from liturgy and spirituality which assumes two essentially separate disciplines Liturgical spirituality is a holistic concept bringing together both liturgy and spirituality with reference to the interior life of the spirit that is formed and nurtured by the church's liturgy Pfatteicher acknowledges that there are other kinds of spirituality that appear to flourish apart from and in addition to the liturgy for example the spirituality of the desert ascetics of the early centuries of Christianity the devotion of the Religious Society of Friends and many forms of meditation and spiritual discipline such as the Spiritual Exercise of Ignatius Loyola The focus of the present volume however is on the spiritual life as formed by the liturgy the ordered form of Christian worship East and West Catholic and Protestant In addition to the form of worship one might experience on a Sunday morning Liturgical Spirituality guides the reader through and into the experience of daily prayer the Easter Vigil the Church Year the Eucharist hymns and music Baptism and even church architecture as hallowing space In 1955 Louis Bouyer published an admirable study entitled Liturgical Piety written before Vatican II and its far reaching reforms that fundamentally changed the entire Western church Philip Pfatteicher has now taken up the challenge of expanding upon Bouyer with a current and invigorating study not of liturgical piety but of liturgical spirituality Philip Pfatteicher is Professor of English at East Stroudsburg University in Pennsylvania a frequent writer and lecturer on liturgical issues and author of A Dictionary of Liturgical Terms and The School of the Church Worship and Christian Formation both published by Trinity Press

Thomas Bernhard's Afterlives Olaf Berwald, Stephen D. Dowden, Gregor Thuswaldner, 2020-10-01 In his prose fiction memoirs poetry and drama Thomas Bernhard 1931-1989 one of the 20th century's most uniquely gifted writers created a new and radical style seemingly out of thin air His books never tell a story in the received sense Instead he rages on the page he rants and spews vitriol about the moral failures of his homeland Austria in the long amnesiac aftermath of the Second World War Yet this furious prose seemingly shapeless but composed with unparalleled musicality and taxing by conventional standards has been powerfully echoed in many writers since Bernhard's death in 1989 These explorers have found in Bernhard's singular accomplishment new paths for the expression of life and truth Thomas Bernhard's Afterlives examines the international mobilization of Bernhard's style Writers in Italian German Spanish Hungarian English and French have succeeded in making Bernhard's Austrian vision an international vision This book tells that story

Violence, Narrative and Myth in Joyce and Yeats T. Balinisteanu, 2012-11-14 How can we use art to reconstruct ourselves and the material world Is every individual an art object Is the material world an art text This book answers these questions by examining modernist literature especially James Joyce and W B Yeats in the context of anarchist intellectual thought and Georges Sorel's theory of social myth

Neuroaesthetics: Exploring Beauty Within And Around Us Yan Bao, Ernst Poppel, Richu Wang, Semir Zeki, 2024-12-13 Neuroaesthetics has become an important new field in the sciences bringing together researchers from cognitive science as a general term including brain science psychology anthropology ethology artificial intelligence the humanities including linguistics philosophy and the arts artists from the visual arts music and poetry Thus neuroaesthetics is a prime example of successful interdisciplinarity In the book Neuroaesthetics Exploring Beauty Within and Around Us we distinguish and represent in several articles two different kinds of interdisciplinarity Horizontal interdisciplinarity brings together in a complementary way different fields like as an example psychology linguistics and poetry Vertical interdisciplinarity refers to research on data generating mechanisms like as an example neural activities in the brain being associated with subjective experiences of beauty In the book articles refer to the visual arts art in space to faces in art to poetry and music art in time and to general ideas bridging art and science This is a unique collection of articles with a broad scope
