George And Rue:

George & Rue George Elliott Clarke, 2005 The facts are clear it was by all accounts a slug ugly crime In 1949 brothers George and Rufus Hamilton drunkenly bludgeoned a taxi driver to death in the dirt poor settlement of Barker s Point New Brunswick Less than eight months later they were both hanged for their crime George and Rue were George Elliott Clarke s matrilineal first cousins once removed Despite the fact that the crime lives on in Fredericton where the murder site is known as Hammertown Clarke knew nothing of this chapter in his family s past until his mother told him about it in 1994 Both repelled and intrigued he set out to discover what kind of forces would reduce a man to crime violence and ultimately murder George Rue shifts seamlessly back through the killers pasts recounting a bleakly comic tale of victims of violence who became violent themselves an African community Three Mile Plains Nova Scotia too poor and too shamed to help the men and a white community bent on condemning all blacks as dangerous outsiders A horrific and horrifically funny story George Rue is also infused with a sensual rhythmical beauty

George and Rue George Elliott Clarke, 2006 The writer of the award winning Execution Poems shares a fictional depiction of the lives and motivations of two ancestral cousins who suffered underprivileged and violent childhoods and were condemned and hanged by the white community for their role in killing a taxi driver

Execution Poems George Elliott Clarke, 2009 After nine years and nine trade printings Gaspereau Press is issuing a revised and redesigned second edition of its most popular title Originally released in 2000 in a limited edition of 66 books handset and printed letterpress in a folio format Execution Poems has gone on to sell over 6000 copies It was the winner of the 2001 Governor General s award for poetry and took first place in the poetry category of the 2001 Alcuin Awards for Excellence in Canadian Book Design Execution Poems is a suite of poems about Clarke s cousins George and Rufus Hamilton who were hanged in July 1949 for the murder of a Fredericton New Brunswick taxi driver In this startling work Clarke reminds us of racism and poverty and of their brutal tragic results blurring the line between the perpetrator and the victim a line we d prefer to be simple and clear As all true poetry should Clarke s embodies both damnation and redemption offering convoluted triumphs alongside tragedy

Crafting Lives Catherine W. Bishir, 2013 From the colonial period onward black artisans in southern cities thousands of free and enslaved carpenters coopers dressmakers blacksmiths saddlers shoemakers bricklayers shipwrights cabinetmakers tailors and others played vital roles in their communities Yet only a very few black craftspeople have gained popular and scholarly attention Catherine W Bishir remedies this oversight by offering an in depth portrayal of urban African American artisans in the small but important port city of New Bern In so doing she highlights the community s often unrecognized importance in the history of nineteenth century black life Drawing upon myriad sources Bishir brings to life men and women who employed their trade skills sense of purpose and community relationships to work for liberty and self sufficiency to establish and protect their families and to assume leadership in churches and associations and in New Bern s dynamic political life during and after the Civil War Focusing on their words and actions Crafting Lives provides a new understanding of urban southern black artisans unique place in the larger picture of American artisan identity
