Garrett, 2012-09-03 On January 20 1984 Earl Washington defended for all of forty minutes by a lawyer who had never tried a death penalty case was found guilty of rape and murder in the state of Virginia and sentenced to death After nine years on death row DNA testing cast doubt on his conviction and saved his life However he spent another eight years in prison before more sophisticated DNA technology proved his innocence and convicted the guilty man DNA exonerations have shattered confidence in the criminal justice system by exposing how often we have convicted the innocent and let the guilty walk free In this unsettling in depth analysis Brandon Garrett examines what went wrong in the cases of the first 250 wrongfully convicted people to be exonerated by DNA testing Based on trial transcripts Garrett s investigation into the causes of wrongful convictions reveals larger patterns of incompetence abuse and error Evidence corrupted by suggestive eyewitness procedures coercive interrogations unsound and unreliable forensics shoddy investigative practices cognitive bias and poor lawyering illustrates the weaknesses built into our current criminal justice system Garrett proposes practical reforms that rely more on documented recorded and audited evidence and less on fallible human memory Very few crimes committed in the United States involve biological evidence that can be tested using DNA How many unjust convictions are there that we will never discover Convicting the Innocent makes a powerful case for systemic reforms to improve the accuracy of all criminal cases

One Night Cathy Winkler, 2002-05-07 One night anthropologist Cathy Winkler awoke from a deep sleep to discover a rapist standing by her bed For the rest of that night she lived a woman s worst nightmare as she was repeatedly raped and beaten by the stranger The event changed her life into something resembling a Kafka novel a justice system that bungled the case then blamed the victim a social service system that provided no services or comfort uneasy and awkward friends exploitative media and insensitive university administrators and colleagues The pain of those four hours was dwarfed by the frustration of her decade long fight to find the rapist and bring him to justice ultimately through one of the first successful uses of DNA evidence in a rape case Winkler a brilliant observer and ethnographer chronicles this struggle here including her own growing awareness of her power to stare down district attorneys to use the media to her own ends including segments on 48 Hours and Court TV and ultimately through her persistence to put the rapist behind bars for life As a story of triumph over adversity One Night is an inspirational work And it provides a model of how researchers can turn the lens inward and incisively examine ourselves and our own world
