consequences of those choices Hidden in the background is God's plan for each life He knows our thoughts words and deeds and their contributions to eternity We are called to be faithful to His prescriptions for living however we often use our freedom to choose to muck things up sometimes for generations Nevertheless God's Invisible Hand is always at work His plan always produces good especially for those who are faithful Generations of turning from God and basic economic principles of life have together created a moral and financial chaos which threatens the very existence of civilization as we have known it Those who comprehend the seriousness of the escalating risks facing us on multiple fronts and who turn faithfully back to God for guidance will be far better prepared to deal with the coming global implosion Be one of them starting now
