Lazin, Matt Evans, Vincent Hoffmann-Martinot, 2008-05-01 Local Government Reforms in Countries in Transition explores the impacts that the end of the Cold War and increased globalization have had on government around the world The decentralization of national governments has led to a greater role for local governments public administration and democratic representation are the new arena of local governments the world over Focusing not only on countries from the former Soviet Union but also on Israel China South Africa and Egypt the contributors to this volume present a truly global investigation of countries experiencing governmental transformation Decentralization and State Capacity Todor Arpad, 2007 The scope of the present approach is twofold First it will try to analyze whether the post communist transitions were very different from other transitions from autocratic rule see Schneider and Schmitter 2003 for a debate on the subject by attempting to adjust a theoretical apparatus developed for other uses and to apply it irrespective of the degree of democratization Second as the vision on what decentralization means and how it works influences how important funds are distributed and how many programs of the international institutions are implemented the findings may have an immense public policy stake Especially under the influence of the main international institutions of the World Bank and the IMF many developing countries are guided into adopting specific policies The Politics of Local Government in Russia Alfred B. Evans, Vladimir Gel'man, 2004-06-03 According to the Constitution of the Russian Federation adopted in 1993 local autonomy is one of the fundamental principles of the constitutional system The Politics of Local Government in Russia aims to provide a dedicated and comprehensive discussion of the pursuit of local self government in contemporary Russia where local refers to the third tier of government beyond federal and regional governments Some of the ablest scholars in the field focus on the existing institutional and social climate for municipal and district level government in Russia while placing recent reforms in a comparative and historical perspective Handbook of Public Administration W. Local Government in Central and Eastern Europe Andrew Coulson,Adrian Campbell,2007-08-02 This book examines the democratic changes that took place in civil society in Central and Eastern Europe after the break up of the Soviet Union

Tax Evasion, Trust and State Capacities Simon Hug,2007 Many recently democratized countries in Central and Eastern Europe having escaped from communist rule and planned economies face pressing problems related to the notions of tax evasion trust and state capacities Tax morale in changing political and economic contexts is of crucial importance This raises a series of questions What are the conditions under which people agree to pay taxes Why do people avoid taxes To what extent do the reasons for tax evasion vary from one region to another The authors of this volume address these questions and try to assess the progress which has been made in Central and Eastern Europe with regard to improving tax morale through tax reforms and strengthening of extractive state capacities A main insight is the complex causal relationship between the quality of fiscal institutions and tax morale In addition huge differences between countries of the former Soviet Union and central European countries which are now members of the EU can be observed not only at the level of democratic governance of state capacities and the structures of trust but also with regard to tax morale

Heads of the Local State John Garrard,2017-11-28 In recent decades there has been increasing historical interest in various aspects of local urban politics resulting in a much better understanding of the recruitment and socio economic characteristics of municipal leadership and the exercise of power at a local level However much less is known about the highly important offices and office holders standing at the ceremonial political and executive head of towns and cities Through a comparative analysis of mayoralty since1800 this volume explores the characteristics of the office in relation to such issues as the constitutional position of mayors their ceremonial and executive roles their representational status in relation to local regional and central authority and their public visibility which at various times has been used to highlight or blur issues of race gender politics or religion within a community Drawing on examples from contrasting national contexts in Eastern and Western Europe and North America and with contributions from both historians and political scientists this book will be welcomed as an important step in providing a much fuller international picture of the development and nature of urban governance

Eurasian Cities Souleymane Coulibaly,Uwe Deichmann,William R. Dillinger,Marcel Ionescu-Heroiu,Ioannis N. Kessides,Charles Kunaka,Daniel Saslavsky,2012-09-07

Reforming Regional-local Finance in Russia Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, Andrey Timofeev, Jameson Boex, 2006-01-01 The exposition is based on an analytical framework covering all building blocks of fiscal federalism size and structure of jurisdictions expenditures revenues transfers and borrowing The application of this framework to Russian settings results in a comprehensive assessment of the state of intergovernmental fiscal relations in Russia Reforming Tax Systems

Vahram Stepanyan, 2003-09-01 Starting in the early 1990s the Baltics Russia and other BRO countries of the former Soviet Union initiated tax reforms that varied widely at the later stages Recently some of the BRO countries basing decisions on the proposition that lowering of the top marginal income tax rate would significantly benefit economic development and increase tax compliance have initiated a new stage of tax reforms This paper reviews country experiences and suggests that i overall there seems to be little evidence of a substantial improvement in income tax revenues resulting simply from a reduction in the top marginal tax rates and ii in the BRO countries the elasticity of the behavior of economic agents in terms of labor supply saving and investment with respect to income tax rates is not large and a reduction of the existing income tax rates is unlikely to lead to a notable expansion of economic activity Indian Economic Development since Independence Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2022-09-22 Reviews India s economic progress post 1947 covering planning liberalization industrial policy poverty alleviation and infrastructure development Transforming Financial Systems in the Baltics, Russia and Other Countries of

Governments' Fiscal Balance, Privatization, and Banking Sector Reform in Transition Countries Ernesto Crivelli,2012-06-01 Several transition economies have undertaken fiscal decentralization reforms over the past two decades along with liberalization privatization and stabilization reforms Theory predicts that decentralization may aggravate fiscal imbalances unless the right incentives are in place to promote fiscal discipline This paper uses a panel of 20 transition countries over 19 years to address a central question of fact Did privatization help to promote local governments fiscal discipline The answer is clearly no for privatization considered in isolation However privatization and subnational fiscal autonomy along with reforms to the banking system restraining access to soft financing may prove effective at improving fiscal balances among local governments Coordinating Stabilization and Structural Reform Mr.Richard C. Bart,Mr.Chorng-Huey Wong,Mr.Alan Roe,1994-09-15 This seminar volume edited by Richard C Barth Alan R Roe and Chorng Huey Wong presents an overview of the links between structural and macroeconomic policies that were addressed in an IMF Institute seminar held in Washington D C in 1993 The most important areas of structural reform are covered the price system tax and expenditure policy exchange rate management external trade public enterprises the financial sector and social safety nets Four case studies are presented China Poland Argentina and the Gambia
