18: A novel of Golf and Life John Barnes,2020-04-14 Golf It's what lights us up It's our passion That light you have that is yours and yours alone It means more than you know to others without even trying to impress them It inspires enables others to rise It makes people happy Craig Cantwell is well known as a journeyman millionaire and the best professional golfer who has not won a major His successful life as a tour pro is shattered when he is suspended from the PGA Tour Without a place to compete and with a personal life tangled with drama Craig has to find his way back to a life he knows His fight is not with the scions of the tour the public or the scores of great golfers who would be his opponents He has to prevail over the toughest of adversaries himself 18 A Novel of Golf and Life beautifully tells the story of Cantwell and those in his life Rachelle Keys the mother of Craig's daughter and a heroic FBI Agent Kelly Keys the new IT girl of golf Thomas Kincaid agent and lawyer to the rich and scandalous And Seth Reede the personal development guru with a past more shocking than any fallen hero Far more involved than just a tale of athletic triumph 18 A Novel of Golf and Life is a story of forgiveness truth courage and redemption Fans of Micheal J Murphy's Golf in the Kingdom James Patterson's Miracle at St Andrews and J Michael Veron's The Greatest Player Who Never Lived will love this book for its equal parts of life love philosophy and golf

Prescription for Inequality Jillian M. Duquaine-Watson,2024-01-11 This book explores how social determinants of health SDH impact the health of a variety of marginalized demographic groups in the United States Chapters focus on the 13 groups that research demonstrates are most disadvantaged by SDH and consequently who suffer the most from ongoing health disparities in America This includes Black and Hispanic individuals the LGBTQIA community women the elderly people with disabilities veterans and those living in rural areas among others Chapters follow a standardized format that makes it easy for readers to focus in on aspects of the subject that are of greatest interest Each profile begins with a snapshot of that group's current state of health including the biggest medical concerns and how other determinants of health may play a role Next each chapter takes an in depth look at the four components of SDH economic factors educational access and quality healthcare access and quality and living environment and social context Unique problems and possible solutions are explored within each of these four sections An end of volume bibliography and further readings list points readers who wish to continue their investigation of the topic toward additional information Relying on an interdisciplinary framework the book incorporates research from diverse fields including public health feminist theory critical studies of race and ethnicity poverty studies disability studies aging studies cultural competence legal studies and global health In recognition of the reality that health disparities are the result of a complex interplay of forces and structural factors that permeate American culture analysis extends beyond health and health care to include a broad range of interrelated social political economic and educational components
