

A person stands on a dark, rocky beach at night, looking up at a vast, swirling blue and white cosmic nebula in a starry sky. The person's arms are raised in a gesture of awe or contemplation. The nebula is the central focus, with bright white and blue light emanating from its core, surrounded by darker blue and purple wisps. The background is a deep black night sky filled with numerous small, distant stars. The overall mood is one of wonder and the vastness of the universe.

God Cosmos Man:

God, Cosmos, and Man Wayne Fields, 1998 God Cosmos and Man builds a powerful scientific interpretation of existence centered on the meticulous integrated development of several main concepts 1 Matter here and everywhere spontaneously self organizes 2 All order we see in the universe has resulted from matter's self organization 3 Life is the highest state of spontaneously self organized matter and almost certainly exists widely in the cosmos 4 Mind is the highest state of life seemingly capable of exerting progressively increasing control over the universe as intelligence further evolves 5 Science seems to be telling us that god may be different than at least the Western religions would have us believe Humans basically had a blind faith religious view of existence when modern science arose about 400 years ago But science has progressively superceded religion relative to many critical issues and remaining topics seem likely to fall to science's relentless onslaught as well This book carefully crafts a powerful argument based on diverse biological and physical disciplines to show how a remarkably consistent world view emerges from today's science Such a new perspective carries powerful attributes that may be more satisfying for many and as any world view should do and agrees with what we actually see This book provides a fresh penetrating scientific analysis of existence and reveals veiled but powerful interrelations between matter conscious mind and cosmic makeup that suggest imaginative new views of god

Thrice-Greatest Hermes G. R. S. Mead, 1906 This is the edition including all three books The so called Hermetic writings have been known to Christian writers for many centuries The early church Fathers Justin Martyr Tertullian Clement of Alexandria quote them in defense of Christianity Stobaeus collected fragments of them The Humanists knew and valued them They were studied in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and in modern times have again been diligently examined by many scholars G R S Mead has issued a translation of the whole body of extant literature with extended prolegomena commentary etc There is a wide difference of opinion as to the date at which this literature was produced Mead believes that some of the extant portions of it are at least as early as the earliest Christian writings while von Christ assigns them to the third Christian century and thinks that they show the influence of neo Platonism To affirm that they influenced New Testament usage would be hazardous but they perhaps throw some light on the direction in which thought was moving in New Testament times
