Christian Apologetics Douglas Groothuis, 2022-02-08 The Christian faith offers people hope But how can we know that Christianity is true How can Christians confidently present their beliefs in the face of doubts and competing views In this second edition of a landmark apologetics text Douglas Groothuis makes a clear and rigorous case for Christian theism addressing the most common questions and objections raised regarding Christianity

Reasons We Believe (Foreword by John MacArthur) Nathan Busenitz, 2008-07-22 Reasons We Believe will reinforce your personal faith and will provide you with a clear concise evangelistic tool to help you share that faith with others In an age of cynics and skeptics Christianity is constantly under attack Believers need resources that defend the veracity of their faith They are searching for clear concise and credible answers to both doubts of their own and objections from their unbelieving friends Nathan Busenitz provides such resources to believers Reasons We Believe confirms and strengthens the faith of believers by demonstrating the reliability of the twofold authority on which Christianity rests the Word of God and the person of Jesus Christ Reasons builds a biblical foundation for the authority of the Bible and then shows how extra biblical evidence corresponds with and thereby attests to what the Bible claims This study seeks to reinforce the faith of Christians while also providing them with a straightforward evangelistic tool for reaching non Christians

Five Views on Apologetics Zondervan, 2010-06-01 Of the most common approaches to apologetics which is most effective The goal of apologetics is to persuasively defend Christianity against charges of falsehood inconsistency or credulity It is an intellectual discipline that serves to bolster the faith of Christian believers and to aid the task of evangelism but are some methods more effective than others Five Views on Apologetics examines the how to of apologetics putting five prominent techniques under the microscope Classical represented by William Lane Craig Evidential represented by Gary Habermas Cumulative Case represented by Paul D Feinberg Presuppositional represented by John M Frame Reformed Epistemology represented by Kelly James Clark Offering a forum for presentation critique and defense this book allows the contributors for the different viewpoints to respond to the others Your own informed conclusions can then guide you as you meet the questions of a needy world with the claims of the gospel The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Christian Philosophical Theology Stephen T. Davis, 2006-03-16 Christian Philosophical Theology constitutes a Christian philosopher's look at various crucial topics in Christian theology including belief in God the nature of God the Trinity christology the resurrection of Jesus the general resurrection redemption and theological method The book is tightly argued and amounts to a coherent explanation of and case for the Christian world view Although written from a broadly Reformed Protestant perspective and although the author does not avoid controversial topics the aim is to present a merely Christian world view to adapt slightly C S Lewis's famous term That is Stephen T Davis attempts to write as much as possible from the perspective of the broad centre of Christian understanding

Readings in the Philosophy of Religion - Third Edition Kelly James Clark, 2017-05-03 This anthology contains the best of both classical and contemporary sources offering a balanced historical approach to the philosophy of religion while reflecting the latest developments in the field The included readings grapple with issues that are existentially compelling and provocative regardless of one's religious leanings Topics are covered in a point counterpoint manner designed to foster deep reflection This third edition contains an entirely new section on early Chinese religion as well as new essays on religious language feminism and the cognitive science of religion

Religions, Reasons and Gods John Clayton, 2006-11-25 Traditional theistic proofs are often understood as evidence intended to compel belief in a divinity John Clayton explores the surprisingly varied applications of such proofs in the work of philosophers and theologians from several periods and traditions thinkers as varied as Ramanuja al Ghazali Anselm and Jefferson He shows how the gradual disembedding of theistic proofs from their diverse and local religious contexts is concurrent with the development of natural theologies and atheism as social and intellectual options in early modern Europe and America Clayton offers a fresh reading of the early modern history of philosophy and theology arguing that awareness of such history and the local uses of theistic argument offer important ways of managing religious and cultural difference in the public sphere He argues for the importance of historically grounded philosophy of religion to the field of religious studies and public debate on religious pluralism and cultural diversity

Realism and Religion Michael Scott, 2017-09-29 This book draws together a distinguished group of philosophers and theologians to present new thinking on realism and religion The religious realism antirealism debate concerns the questions of God's independence from human beings the nature of religious truth and our access to religious truths Although both philosophers and theologians have written on these subjects there has been little sustained investigation into these issues akin to that found in comparable areas of research such as ethics or the philosophy of science In addition the absence of any agreed approach to the problem underlines both the need for fresh thought on it and the fruitfulness of this area for further research The editors introduction sets the context of the realism debate traces connections amongst the essays which follow and proposes lines for future development and enquiry The contributors present a variety of contrasting positions on key issues in the religious realism debate and each opens up new and important themes Gordon Kaufman Peter Lipton and Simon Blackburn provide the opening chapters and the context for the collection Alexander Bird John Hare Graham Oppy and Nick Trakakis Merold Westphal and John Webster explore topics that are central to the debate This volume of original essays will both introduce newcomers to the field and suggest new lines of research for those already familiar with it
