Going Crazy An Inquiry Into Madness In Our Time:

Going Crazy Otto Friedrich, 1976 Combines personal accounts of mental and emotional breakdowns with accounts of historical and literary madness in a study of the causes symptoms and definitions of insanity and of society's attitudes toward the insane Approaches to Discourse, Poetics and Psychiatry Iris M. Zavala, Teun A. van Dijk, Myriam

Díaz-Diocaretz, 1988-01-01 A collection of innovative essays representing the most recent developments in poetry as discourse the discourse of power and discourse of psychiatry and psychosis The essays in this volume deal with questions of interpretation of poetry psychoanalysis and political theory All are presented here as appropriate objects of discourse studies which go beyond conventional analysis Schizophrenia: the Bearded Lady Disease Volume Two, 2010-08-24 Man has long searched for the cause and meaning of mental illness This second book continues in an attempt to answer those questions The author compiler has spent 47 years investigating these problems and his conclusion is that severe unconscious bisexual conflict and confusion lie at the root of all mental illness as difficult to comprehend as this idea may be The book itself consists of 773 quotations from a variety of sources all of which point to the unshakable truth of this hypothesis This is a fixed law of nature unassailable and constantly operative in every case No other species but man is afflicted with mental illness because no other species has either the intellectual power to repress their sexual feelings nor the motivation to do so The disease we call schizophrenia is but an arbitrary name which is used to designate the end stage of a process beginning with a slight neurosis The more severe the bisexual conflict and confusion in the individual the more severe the degree of the mental illness which is experienced Several other investigators in the past have reached this same conclusion but unfortunately their wisdom went largely unheeded Hopefully this book will remedy that ill advised neglect Encountering

Freud Paul Roazen, 2017-09-08 In this volume Paul Roazen examines different national responses to Freud and the beginnings of psychoanalysis He examines Freud's work in the contexts of law society and class as well as other forms of psychology Encountering Freud includes a brilliant essay on Freud and the question of psychoanalysis contribution to radical thought in contrast to the conservative tradition Roazen takes up the extravagant claims of Marcuse and Reich and sees the risks of then overglamorization of the beginnings of psychoanalysis as a profession Roazen views the legacies of Harry Stack Sullivan Helene Deutsch and Erik H Erikson as less rich because their work conformed to the social status quo He sees Freud's inability to avoid an ambiguous outcome as a lack of concern with normality and a refusal to own up to the wide variety of psychological solutions he found both therapeutically tolerable and humanly desirable Roazen concludes with a series of explorations on the dichotomies Freud left behind clinical discoveries versus philosophical standpoints the relationship of normality to nihilism and a defense of a therapeutic setting based on trained specialists versus a therapeutic approach encouraging self expression This is a volume that utilizes a sharp focus on Freud and his followers and dissenters to explore the question of political psychology at one end and psych history at the other end of analysis Schizophrenia Bulletin

,1977 Ordinary Families, Special Children, Third Edition Milton Seligman,Rosalyn Benjamin Darling,2009-02-23

This popular clinical reference and text provides a multisystems perspective on childhood disability and its effects on family life The volume examines how child family ecological and sociocultural variables intertwine to shape the ways families respond to disability and how professionals can promote coping adaptation and empowerment Accessible and engaging the book integrates theory and research with vignettes and firsthand reflections from family members The Lost Romantics Norbert Lennartz,2020-01-13 This book features a collection of essays shedding subversively new light on Romanticism and its canon of big six white male Romantics by focusing on marginalised forgotten and lost writers and their long neglected works Probing the realms of literary and cultural lostness this book identifies different strata of oblivion and shows how densely the net of contacts and rivalries was woven around the ostensibly monolithic stars of the Romantic age It reveals how the lost poets inspired the production of anthologised poetry that they served as indispensable muses sidekicks and interlocutors of the big six and that their relevance for the literary scene has been continuously underrated This is also surprisingly true for some creators of famous one hit wonders Frankenstein The Vampyre who were suddenly rocketed to fame or notoriety but could not help seeing their other works of fiction turning into abortive flops Psychotherapy And Its Discontents Dryden, Windy,Feltham, Colin,1992-06-01 Psychotherapists and critics of psychotherapy outline their views and answer their adversaries The critics draw attention to the inadequacy of research validating the results of psychotherapy and argue that no treatment at all may be as effective as therapy that some people s experience of therapy is harmful that there is a preciousness and pretentiousness about many psychotherapists that psychotherapists may be flawed and exploitative that psychotherapy is anachronistically detached from the new paradigm views and that psychotherapy embodies a form of psychological reductionism that weakens its credibility The object of this book is to reduce the antagonism between the two camps so that future debate can be more constructive than hitherto The contributors are Michael Barkham Ian Craib Gill Edwards Albert Ellis Hans Eysenck Stephen Frosh Sol Garfield Ernest Gellner Jeremy Holmes Paul Kline Katherine Mair Jeffrey Masson David Pilgrim Jeff Roberts John Rowan David Shapiro and Stuart Sutherland Poetic Madness and the Romantic Imagination Frederick Burwick,2010-11-01 Gradiva ,1976 Listening to Midlife Mark Gerzon,1996-03-05
