Key Concepts In The Practice Of Sufism 1:

Emerald Hills of the Heart M. Fethullah Gülen, 2007-04-01 This comprehensive study explores sufism as a form of self purification offering a deeper understanding of the sacred acts and a greater knowledge and love of the divine The first volume of the series presents such sufi concepts as repentance reflection self criticism asceticism piety abstinence self supervision and sincerity

Key Concepts in the Practice of Sufism Fethullah Gülen, 2004 The origin of Sufism Self criticism Reflection Privacy and seclusion Heart Hope or expectation Asceticism People follow the Sufi path when they sense that Islam has a deeper dimension The resulting self purification leads to this inner dimension of Islamic rituals a deeper understanding of the Divine acts and a greater knowledge and love of Him After this God draws the novice to Himself With the help of a spiritual guide the novice begins the life long journey back to God This continual process of spiritual development along a path of the innate human poverty helplessness and powerlessness before God is undertaken in the knowledge that everything comes from God Each novice does what is necessary to grow spiritually and God bestows the appropriate blessings and stations The highest aim of creation and its most sublime result is belief in God The most exalted rank of humanity is knowledge of God The most radiant happiness and sweetest bounty for jinn and humanity is love of God contained within the knowledge of God the purest joy for the human spirit and the purest delight for the human heart is spiritual ecstasy contained within the love of God Indeed all true happiness pure joy sweet bounties and unclouded pleasure are contained within the knowledge and love of God And Sufism is the school where people can realise the highest aim of creation

Emerald Hills of the Heart M. Fethullah Gülen, 2007-04-01 This book is the second volume of the Emerald Hills of the Heart series which brings out a comprehensive and unique examination of concepts and terms associated with Sufism in Islam In this volume Gulen looks at fifty different concepts With an introduction to the heart and some of its dynamics this work is a rich addition with more gates into spirituality Concepts examined include freedom altruism wisdom sainthood intoxication and sobriety wakefulness and the universal man

A Life in Tears Salih Yucel, 2018-12-01 Fethullah G len is a leading figure in the current Turkish socio political context Regardless of the impression different circles have about him he is universally acknowledged as an accomplished scholar and independent thinker who has had a life in tears dreaming of a golden generation but also a life spent in persecution and ongoing trials This book goes beyond the current controversy around his name and tries to explore G len as a scholar around his certain personal traits and some of the key concepts he has been emphasizing over the years to mobilize his audience Based on a research that covers over seventy books 564 sermons over 500 talks by G len more than fifty interviews of his close associates and friends aired on TV networks and the author s personal observations this book is a useful reference for those who study scholarly traditions of Islam in general and Fethullah G len in particular

A Map of the Divine Subtle Faculty Mehmet Yavuz Seker, 2015-04-07 The heart in the Islamic understanding is the expression of a human being s spiritual existence It is a Divine gift and Divine subtle faculty bestowed upon humanity It is a polished mirror reflecting God Like a general the heart commands all other bodily organs and faculties which are its troops Everything that comes from a human being whether good or bad is a product of the heart Mehmet Y Seker a scholar of Sufism and tasawwuf studies the concept of the heart in the Islamic tradition looking at how it is approached by three prominent scholars and thinkers of Islam Ghazali Said Nursi and Fethullah Gulen Being the first in English to take as its focus the human heart from an Islamic spiritual this book comparatively analyzes classical and modern age interpretations and evaluations on the concept and adds to the rich literature of spirituality in the Islamic tradition

Key Concepts in the Practice of Sufism Fethullah Gülen, 2006 Concluding a textually long but spiritually endless journey toward insan al kamil the perfect human this fourth volume approaches Sufism through the middle way an approach that revives the legacy of the Prophet Muhammad With an awareness of the social realities of the 21st century concepts such as tranquility the truth of divinity life beyond the physical realm the preserved tablet the glorified attributes and the beautiful names are delicately explained

The Spirituality of Responsibility Simon Robinson, 2017-05-18 Turkish Islamic leader Fethullah G len offers a distinctive view of responsibility which is explored here for the first time Simon Robinson shows how G len s writings influenced by both orthodox Islam and the Sufi tradition contribute a dynamic holistic and interactive view of responsibility which locates personal identity agency and freedom in plural relationships The Spirituality of Responsibility also explores the practice of responsibility in G len s life and in the Hizmet movement which he founded G len has been at the centre of many controversies including in his Movement s relationship with the Turkish government Charting G len s response from the Israeli Gaza blockade through to more recent crises the book critiques aspects of both this practice and underlying ideas and argues that responsibility focused in dialogue and peace building is continuing to evolve in the leadership and practice of the movement providing a challenge to conventional views of governance and responsibility This book is an important contribution both to the theological and philosophical debate about responsibility but also to the practice of responsibility focused in creative action debates in business and contemporary society about responsible governance and enterprise

The Gulen Hizmet Movement and Its Transnational Activities Sophia Pandya, Nancy Gallagher, 2012 This volume of essays on the Gulen or Hizmet service movement a Turkish Sufi Muslim and humanitarian civil society group looks at the recent activities of its followers to practice their form of Islam and carry out collective interfaith projects at the international level It adds to the newly burgeoning discourse by focusing on the ways in which participants challenge ideological and sectarian boundaries Included are essays which discuss how the movement is organized structured and institutionalized in many parts of the world explore Turkey s global influence evaluate criticisms of the movement and suggest directions for further research While most previous scholarly attention has focused on the theological and philosophical ideas of Fethullah Gulen the movement s inspirational figure less attention has been paid to the ways in which participants have interpreted and carried out Gulen s messages in the contemporary world

The House of Service David Tittensor,2014-02-28 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideo theology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus s social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world s largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future Fethullah

Gulen Jon Pahl,2019-04-22 In this first critical biography of Fethullah Gulen in English historian Jon Pahl takes us on a journey where we discover wisdom and controversy from 1940 s Turkey to the U S in the twenty first century Pahl tells the story of a pious Muslim boy from a tiny and remote Turkish village who on the one hand has inspired a global movement of millions of individuals dedicated to literacy social enterprise and interreligious dialogue but who on the other hand has been monitored by Turkish police seen as a threat by autocrats and recently declared number one enemy by the current Turkish dictator With lively prose and extensive research Pahl traces Fethullah Gulen s life and thought in its contexts states clearly his own positions and then lets readers draw their own conclusions from the evidence about this undeniably significant historical figure Practicing Sufism Abdelmajid Hannoum,2016-07-15 Islam in Africa is deeply connected with Sufism and the history of Islam is in a significant way a history of Sufism Yet even within this continent the practice and role of Sufism varies across the regions This interdisciplinary volume brings together histories and experiences of Sufism in various parts of Africa offering case studies on several countries that include Morocco Algeria Senegal Egypt Sudan Mali and Nigeria It uses a variety of methodologies ranging from the hermeneutical through historiographic to ethnographic in a comprehensive examination of the politics and performance of Sufism in Africa While the politics of Sufism pertains largely to historical and textual analysis to highlight paradigms of sanctity in different geographical areas in Africa the aspect of performance adopts a decidedly ethnographic approach combining history history of art and discourse analysis Together analysis of these two aspects reveals the many faces of Sufism that have remained hitherto hidden Furthering understanding of the African Islamic religious scene as well as contributing to the study of Sufism worldwide this volume is of key interest to students and scholars of Middle Eastern African and Islamic studies Calling to Good Fethullah Gulen, 2024-02-09 Call to good and prevent wrong amr bil ma ruf wa nahy an al munkar Depending on the translations within the Qur'anic contexts calling to good may be rendered as promoting the right just honorable righteous behavior and virtue whereas preventing wrong is forbidding what is evil dishonorable and vice The Qur'an urges believers to embrace this duty individually and collectively and praises them when they practice this obligation Al Imran 3:104-110 This duty is meant to encourage righteous behavior and discourage immorality and aims to remove oppression from society and instead establish justice It should ideally be the distinguishing trait of a Muslim community as it applies to the moral social political and economic facets of life Calling to good and preventing wrong can be classified as a duty in the framework of teaching others about faith tabligh Literally meaning to reach out or to convey tabligh is directed to raise the consciousness among people about their responsibility towards religion It disseminates knowledge about living one's faith in a principled way Therefore any discourse or any act that conveys communicates reminds promotes or publishes the teachings and commands of God to the unknowing or to the less informed or any discourse or act that discourages or prevents people from being wrong unjust or evil comes under the meaning of this word tabligh Rooted deeply in the Qur'an hadith and commentaries of notable scholars the book in your hands is a precious resource to comprehend the context and dynamics that make spiritual mentoring and guidance an important part of a faithful life The content of the book consists of transcripts of a series of sermons M. Fethullah Gulen delivered early in his career as a preacher While presenting extensive commentary based on examples from the time of Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him and Rightly Guided Caliphs Gulen does so with awareness of the realities of the modern era especially with regards to being free from political interests and keeping the scope as wide as possible so to embrace the whole of humanity The book supports the idea that spiritual mentoring and guidance is an important duty and highlights some principles mentors should take into consideration While being an essential reference for mentors and counselors in the Muslim community the book offers many universal principles that all faith communities can benefit from and refer to in their services Islamic Spirituality Zeki Saritoprak, 2017-11-30 Islamic Spirituality: Theology and Practice for the Modern World examines and explores the inner dimension of Islam The writings of important figures in the historical development of Islamic spirituality are examined as well as the major sources of religious authority in Islam the Qur'an and Hadith Both classical Sufis and Sufism are explored as well as contemporary mystics Key figures discussed include medieval Islamic theologian al-Ghazali d. 1111 and Said Nursi d. 1960 arguably one of the most important modern theologians in the Islamic spiritual tradition Discussing both historical and contemporary dimensions of Islamic spirituality allows the author to ground classical Sufi texts in contemporary ideas and practices Exploring spirituality in relation to key contemporary issues such as ecology Zeki Saritoprak demonstrates how when and where people can practice Islamic spirituality in the Modern world Providing an overview of the intellectual and theological basis of Islamic spirituality and including the author's own translations of a selection of key texts this volume is ideal reading for courses exploring Islamic spirituality and mysticism and anyone interested in the spiritual practices of nearly a quarter of the world's population

Modern Debates on Prophecy and Prophethood in Islam Mahsheed Ansari, 2023-07-17 While prophethood is the backbone of the Islamic tradition and an uncompromised tenet of faith the impact of modernity with its ambivalent status afforded to the prophet and institution of prophethood shook many Muslim scholars Through analysis of these modern debates on prophethood in Islam this book situates Muhammad Iqbal's 1877-1938 and Said Nursi's 1877-1960 discourses within it and assesses their implications on the modern period This book introduces the what who and how of the prophets in the Islamic tradition It unveils the rich Islamic literature of both the classical and modern periods and analyses the construction of their philosophies and theologies Concise in both historical and textual analyses this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of contemporary debates on prophecy and prophethood in Islam and will be of great interest to postgraduate students and researchers of Islam religious studies medieval studies and contemporary studies of Islam and religion

Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements, 2021-07-15 The Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements offers a multinational study of Islam its variants influences and neighbouring movements from a multidisciplinary range of scholars These chapters highlight the diversity of Islam especially in its contemporary manifestations as a religion of many communities theologies and ideologies Over five sections on Sunni Shia Sufi fundamentalist and fringe Islamic movements the authors provide historical overviews analyses and in depth studies of large and small Islamic and related groups from all around the world The contents of this volume will be of interest to both newcomers to the study of Islam and established scholars of religion who wish to engage with the dynamic label of Islam and the many impactful movements of the Islamic world

Dreams Beyond Time Lee Irwin, 2022-05-04 Dreams Beyond Time On Sacred Encounter and Spiritual Transformation offers readers an overview of dreams research as applied to non ordinary dreams Lee Irwin describes four basic types of dreaming normative mythic psychic and transpersonal and he illustrates each type with specific dream examples These types of dreaming are then used as a lens to look more closely at additional dream types that indicate dreaming as a process of creative discovery Through virtual dreaming encounters latent human potentials are revealed and suggest aspects for spiritual development based on dream recording interpretation and analysis In turn this leads to a metaphysical description that is pan sentient illustrating a vivid living universe of process becoming in which certain dream types reveal mythic psychic and transpersonal capacities as intrinsic to a deeper more awakened sense of intersubjective self awareness While dream theories from many diverse authors are explored the author uses an existential and phenomenological method to analyze dreaming contents in relationship to altered states of mind trance out of body and near death experience meditation imagination and stages of lucid self awareness Transpersonal dreams are given considerable attention in relationship to mystical traditions paranormal research and the comparative anthropology of self Joshua D. Hendrick, 2013-08-12 The Hizmet Service Movement of Fethullah Gülen is Turkey's most influential Islamic identity community. Widely praised throughout the early 2000s as a mild and moderate variation on Islamic political identity, the Gülen Movement has long been a topic of both adulation and conspiracy in Turkey and has become more controversial as it spreads across the world. In Gülen, Joshua D. Hendrick suggests that when analyzed in accordance with its political and economic impact, the Gülen Movement, despite both praise and criticism, should be given credit for playing a significant role in Turkey's rise to global prominence. Drawing on 14 months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey and the U.S., Hendrick examines the Gülen Movement's role in Turkey's recent rise as well as its strategic relationship with Turkey's Justice and Development Party-led government. He argues that the movement's growth and impact, both inside and outside Turkey, position both its leader and its followers as indicative of a post-political turn in twenty-first century Islamic political identity in general and as illustrative of Turkey's political, economic, and cultural transformation in particular. Joshua D. Hendrick is Assistant Professor of Sociology and Global Studies at Loyola University Maryland in Baltimore.

Glen

A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton, 2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians, philosophers, and organizations concerning areas of shared interest. The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse, contemporary, and historical: Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic. While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gülen and these dialogue partners, they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments. The result is a multi-faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination, self-reflection, and collaborative service.

Islam and Peacebuilding Ishan Yilmaz, 2013-02-27 The exploration of the contributions is made with regards to the title in hand by the thought and practice of the global movement associated with the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gülen. The importance and distinctiveness of teaching of Gülen and the practice of the movement is that it is rooted in a confident Turkish Islamic heritage while being fully engaged with modernity. It offers the possibility of a contextualised renewal of Islam for Muslims in the modern world while being fully rooted in the teachings of the Qur'an and the Sunnah of the Prophet. It advocates the freedom of religion while making an Islamic contribution to the wider society based on a commitment to service of others.

The Gülen Movement in Turkey Caroline Tee, 2016-09-06 What is the Gülen Movement and why is Turkey's President Erdogan so convinced that the organisation and its charismatic leader were behind the failed military coup of 15th July 2016? The Gülen or Hizmet movement in Turkey was until recently the country's most powerful and affluent religious organisation. At its head is the exiled Muslim preacher Fethullah Gülen, who leads from a gated compound in the Pocono Mountains of the USA. The movement's central tenet is that Muslims should engage positively with modernity, especially through mastering the sciences. At hundreds of Gülen-run schools and universities, not only in Turkey but also worldwide and particularly in the United States, instructors have cultivated the next generation of Muslim bankers, biologists, software engineers, and entrepreneurs. In this groundbreaking study Caroline Tee an expert on the Gulen Movement analyses the complex attitudes of Gulen and his followers towards secular modernity Considered against the backdrop of Turkish politics Gulenist engagement with modern science is revealed as a key source of the influence the movement has exerted
