still didn't feel this was true. And this problem had plagued my academic life until the middle of college. It was one of the reasons why I couldn't perform well in school and constantly failed classes being held back in certain cases where I would dream of being a high school dropout. It was until my sophomore year of college where I took my future seriously and decided something HAD to change. I studied how to learn and train my mind to be a better machine at retaining and synthesizing information and in the process I learned what speed reading was. After 2 years of work I was ON FIRE with everything I learned about brain training and reading. Learning felt like a breeze all of a sudden but reading was an area with the most visible concrete improvement because by then I tripled my reading speed without sacrificing comprehension and even improving it. It was like I found a gold mine within my head that I didn't reach before learning speed reading. Everything clicked. And it could click for YOU too. I began coaching people who had similar stories. I had it gave me the inspiration to work harder so nobody will have to be in that hole of giving up reading completely.
