Urbanization with Chinese Characteristics: The Hukou System and Migration Kam Wing Chan, 2018-04-19 Many agree that rapid urbanization in China in the late 20th and early 21st centuries is a mega process significantly reshaping China and the global economy China's urbanization also carries a certain mystique which has long fascinated generations of scholars and journalists alike As it has turned out many of the asserted Chinese feats are mostly fancied claims or gross misinterpretations of statistics for example There does exist however an urbanization that displays rather uncommon Chinese characteristics that remain to inadequately understood Building on his three decades of careful research Professor Kam Wing Chan expertly dissects the complexity of China's hukou system migration urbanization and their interrelationships in this set of journal articles published in the last ten years These works range from seminal papers on Chinese urban definitions and statistics and broad perspective analysis of the hukou system of its first semi centennial to examinations of migration trends and geography and critical evaluations of China's 2014 urbanization blueprint and hukou reform plan This convenient assemblage contains many of Chan's recent important works Together they also form a relatively coherent set on this topic They are essential readings to anyone serious about gaining a true understanding of the prodigious urbanization in contemporary China

The Organic Globalizer Christopher Malone, George Martinez Jr., 2014-11-20 The Organic Globalizer is a collection of critical essays which takes the position that hip hop holds political significance through an understanding of its ability to at once raise cultural awareness expand civil society's focus on social and economic justice through institution building and engage in political activism and participation Collectively the essays assert hip hop's importance as an organic globalizer no matter its pervasiveness or reach around the world hip hop ultimately remains a grassroots phenomenon that is born of the community from which it permeates Hip hop then holds promise through three separate but related avenues 1 through cultural awareness and identification recognition of voices of marginalized communities through music and art 2 through social creation and the institutionalization of independent alternative institutions and non profit organizations in civil society geared toward social and economic justice and 3 through political activism and participation in which demands are articulated and made on the state With editorial bridges between chapters and an emphasis on interdisciplinary and diverse perspectives The Organic Globalizer is the natural scholarly evolution in the conversation about hip hop and politics and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik,2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris As a result inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy
