Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola, Aribidesi Adisa Usman, 2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from

Preface and Introduction Icon and Image Denis Williams, 1974 The Benin Plaques Kathryn Wysocki Gunsch, 2017-12-15 The 16th century bronze plaques from the kingdom of Benin are among the most recognized masterpieces of African art and yet many details of their commission and installation in the palace in Benin City Nigeria are little understood The Benin Plaques A 16th Century Imperial Monument is a detailed analysis of a corpus of nearly 850 bronze plaques that were installed in the court of the Benin kingdom at the moment of its greatest political power and geographic reach By examining European accounts Benin oral histories and the physical evidence of the extant plaques Gunsch is the first to propose an installation pattern for the series Encyclopedia of Caribbean Archaeology Basil A. Reid, R. Grant Gilmore III, 2014-03-04 Encyclopedia of Caribbean Archaeology offers a comprehensive overview of the available archaeological research conducted in the region Beginning with the earliest native migrations and moving through contemporary issues of heritage management the contributors tackle the usual questions of colonization adaptation and evolution while embracing newer research techniques such as geoinformatics archaeometry paleodemography DNA analysis and seafaring simulations Entries are cross referenced so that readers can efficiently access data on a variety of related topics The introduction includes a survey of the various archaeological periods in the Caribbean as well as a discussion of the region's geography climate topography and oceanography It also offers an easy to read review of the historical archaeology providing a better understanding of the cultural contexts of the Caribbean that resulted from the convergence of European Native American African and then Asian settlers

The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java's Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask's trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia

Africa's Ogun Sandra T. Barnes, 1997-06-22 This landmark work of ethnography explores the enduring global worship of the African god of war with five new essays in this new expanded edition Ogun the ancient African god of iron war and hunting is worshiped by more than forty million adherents in Western Africa the Caribbean and the Americas This rich interdisciplinary collection draws on field research from several continents to reveal Ogun's dramatic power and enduring appeal Contributors examine the history and spread of Ogun throughout old and new worlds the meaning of Ogun ritual myth and art and the transformations of Ogun through the deity's various manifestations This edition includes five new essays focusing mainly on Ogun worship in the new world A n ethnographically rich contribution to the historical understanding of West African culture as well as an exploration of the continued vitality of that culture in the changing environments of the Americas African Studies Review

Making the Gods in New York Mary Cuthrell Curry, 2020-07-12 Over the last 35 years practice of Santeria and the Yoruba religion in the United States has grown as the result of African American search for identity and large scale Cuban migration While the ritual and belief systems of Santeria and the Yoruba Religion are essentially the same the practical religion of both differs Both center around questions of group identity and the concerns of their practitioners This book focuses on the changes in the Yoruba Practical Religion of the Converted in the African American community Through insightful attention to rich ethnographic detail the author explores the beliefs practices and rituals of this religious community

Native Arts Of North America, Africa, And The South Pacific George A. Corbin, 2018-05-04 This introduction to the art of tribal peoples of North America Africa and the South Pacific does not briefly cover the hundreds of artistic traditions in these three vast areas but rather studies in depth thirty six art styles within all three areas using the methods of art history including stylistic analysis and iconographic interpretation Emphasis is on the art in cultural context and as a system of visual communication within each tribal area Where appropriate for a more complete understanding of the art data from archaeology ethnology linguistics religion and other humanistic disciplines are included Among the peoples and cultures whose art is studied are the Haida Kwakiutl and Tlingit the Hohokam and Mongollon the Anasazi and Hopi the Dogon and Bamana of Mali the Asante of Ghana the Benin Yoruba and Ibo of Nigeria the Fan the Bamum and the Kuba of Central Africa Australian aboriginal and Island New Guinea art Island Melanesia art central and eastern Polynesia Hawaii and the Maori in Marginal Polynesia The format of the text and selected illustrations is based on seventeen years of teaching African North American Indian and South Pacific art to undergraduate and graduate students at Herbert H Lehman College CUNY New York University and Columbia University The book is intended for art history and anthropology students and the interested lay reader or collector The detailed notes at the end of the book are for further study research and understanding of the tribal art style under discussion

Africa's Ogun, Second, Expanded Edition Sandra T. Barnes, 1997-06-22 The second edition of this landmark work is enhanced by new chapters on Ogun worship in the New World From reviews of the first edition an ethnographically rich contribution to the historical understanding of West African culture as well as an exploration of the continued vitality of that culture in the changing environments of the Americas African Studies Review leaves the reader with a sense of the vitality dynamism and complexity of Ogun and the cultural contexts in which he thrives magnificent contribution to the literature on Ogun Yoruba culture African religions and the African diaspora International Journal of Historical Studies Crossroads / Carrefour Sahel Sonja Magnavita, Lassina Koté, Peter Breunig, Oumarou A. Idé, 2009-12-01 This volume contains the proceedings of the international conference Cultural developments and technological innovations in first millennium BC AD West Africa held in Ouagadougou Burkina Faso in March 2008 with participants from eleven countries and three continents The rationale behind the meeting was the conviction that the first millennium before and after the beginning of the Common Era like no other period before encompasses the origins of developments that are directly related to the modern world particularly in Africa Current archaeological research in West Africa has been providing an increasing amount of relevant evidence on this period including a series of significant developments that had critical impacts on human ways of life in subsequent times The papers of the present volume deal with different aspects of these developments and contribute towards the understanding of the unique cultural diversity of this part of the African continent The Bloomsbury Handbook of Postcolonial Print Cultures Toral Jatin Gajarawala, Neelam Srivastava, Rajeswari Sunder Rajan, Jack Webb, 2023-08-10 The texts that make up postcolonial print cultures are often found outside the archival catalogue and in lesser examined repositories such as personal collections the streets or appendages to established collections This volume examines the published and unpublished writing magazines pamphlets paratexts advertisements cartoons radio and street art that serve as the intellectual forces behind opposition to colonial orders as meditations on the futures of embryonic nation states and as visions of new forms of equality The print cultures examined here are necessarily anti institutional they serve as a counterpoint to the colonial archive and relatedly to more traditional genres and text formats coming out of large scale publishers This means that much of the primary material analyzed in this book has not been scrutinized before Many of these print productions articulate collective liberation projects with origins in the grassroots They include debates around the shape of the postcolonial nation and the new state formation that necessarily draw on a diverse and contentious public sphere of opinion Their rhetoric ranges from the reformist to the revolutionary Reflecting the diversity indeed the disorderliness of postcolonial print cultures this book covers local national and transnational cultures from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Its wide ranging essays offer a nuanced and taken together a definitive though that is not to say comprehensive or systematic study of a global phenomenon postcolonial print cultures as a distinct literary field The chapters recover the efforts of writers readers and publishers to produce a postcolonialism from below and thereby offer a range of fresh perspectives on the meaning and history of postcolonialism A History of African Societies to 1870

Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei's book is also more radical Ancient African Metallurgy Michael S.

Bisson, Terry S. Childs, Philip De Barros, Augustin F.C. Holl, Joseph O. Vogel, 2000-08-16 Gold Copper Iron Metal working in Africa has been the subject of both public lore and extensive archaeological investigation Here four of the leading contemporary researchers on this topic attempt to provide a complete synthesis of current debates and understandings Where how and when was metal first introduced to the continent How were iron and copper tools implements and objects used in everyday life in trade in political and cultural contexts What role did metal objects play in the ideological systems of precolonial African peoples Substantive chapters address the origins of metal working and the technology and the various uses and meanings of copper and iron An ethnoarchaeological account in the words of a contemporary iron worker enriches the archaeological explanations This book provides a comprehensive timely summary of our current knowledge Themes, Issues and Problems in African Philosophy Isaac E. Ukpokolo, 2017-01-31 This volume provides the key to a deepened discourse on philosophy in Africa Available literature and academic practice in African philosophy since the 1960s have largely featured discourses in the areas of origin general meaning and nature of the discipline with little attention given to specialized areas By contrast this book examines a noticeable shifting focus from such general concerns to more specific subject matter in such areas as epistemology moral philosophy metaphysics aesthetics and social and political philosophy in the light of the African experience The volume includes specific discourses from expert contributors on the nature history and scope of African ethics and metaphysics while also discussing particular themes in African epistemology philosophy of education existentialism and political philosophy Researchers seeking for new perspective on African philosophy will find this work thought provoking instructive and informative

Carved Histories Roger Neich, 2001 This comprehensive guide examines the personal histories roles and personalities that played into the traditional cultural art of carving It also traces the influence of European patronage and the ensuing tourist trade upon this art form as many Maori carvers began styling and catering their product to meet their clients aesthetic desires Included is a discussion of the establishment of the government sponsored Rotorua School of Maori Art in 1928 which appointed as the main tutor Eramiha Kapua a Ngati Tarawhai carver thus helping his own traditional tribal art to make the transition into a modern national art

The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies

Masks and Masking Gary Edson, 2015-07-11 For at least 20 000 years masking has been a mark of cultural evolution and an indication of magical religious sophistication in society This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the mask as a powerful cultural phenomenon a means by which human groupings attempted to communicate their dignity and sense of purpose as well as establish a continuum between the natural and supernatural worlds It addresses the distinctive environments within which masks flourished and analyzes the mask as a manifestation of art ethnology and anthropology
