Idea Of Justice In Christian Perspective:

Christian Perspectives on the Role of the State, Justice, and Taxation Robert F. van Brederode, 2025-07-19 This book examines the historical and ongoing influence of Christian ethical thought on taxation governance and distributive justice Building on themes introduced in Political Philosophy and Taxation Springer 2022 which focused on secular perspectives this sequel shifts attention to the contributions of Christian thinkers from Medieval times to the present The book explores key questions surrounding the role of the state the relationship between the state and its subjects the moral right to tax and what constitutes fairness in taxation It investigates how Christian ethical teachings have shaped Western political philosophy particularly in the context of distributive justice and evaluates their relevance in contemporary discussions By analyzing the intersection of theology ethics and political philosophy this book provides a deeper understanding of how Christian traditions have influenced historical notions of justice fairness and governance It offers insights into how these principles can inform modern policy debates and ethical considerations in taxation This book serves as a valuable resource for scholars students and professionals interested in religious ethics political philosophy and public policy It invites readers to reflect on the enduring impact of Christian thought on concepts of justice and the responsibilities of the state

Christian Justice and Public Policy Duncan B. Forrester, 1997-08-28 Disagreements about justice are not simply academic matters They create problems for practice and for policy making In a morally fragmented society in which nobody knows what justice is issues such as wages policy punishment and poverty become particularly difficult to handle People striving to act justly are often uncertain how this might be done Secular theories such as those of Rawls Hayek Habermas and modern feminist theorists examined here give some guidance for problems of justice that arise on the ground but have serious limitations This book argues that Christian theology although it can no longer claim to provide a comprehensive theory of justice can provide insights into justice theological fragments which give illumination challenge some aspects of the conventional wisdom and contribute to the building of just communities in which people may flourish in mutuality and hope

A Christian Perspective on Political Thought Stephen Charles Mott, 1993-05-27 Arguing that Americans make political choices in terms of a general notion of right and wrong yet lack a sound objective foundation for such values evangelical scholar Stephen Mott formulates a Christian political theory that supplies such norms Drawing on theological and biblical sources Mott thoroughly develops the biblical and theological foundations for politics and political evaluation Mott proposes that political philosophies should be evaluated in light of Christian theological and ethical values specifically the understanding of power human nature the nature of group life justice and love government and time He then applies this critical framework in an evaluation of political ideologies including traditional conservatism liberalism democracy laissez faire conservatism Marxist socialism and democratic socialism He gives special attention to their classical exponents and ideas Asserting that political visions ultimately depend on cultural values that themselves require vigorous religious faith in a particular society Mott's study offers a valuable introduction to Christian political thought as well as an illuminating look at the connection between politics and religion

Christian Faith and Social Justice: Five Views Vic McCracken, 2014-06-19 Contributors Miguel A De La Torre Daniel A Dombrowski Jason Jewell Elizabeth Phillips Laura Stivers

Christian Faith, Justice, and a Politics of Mercy James E. Gilman, 2014-04-10 This book assumes that the most profound moral conflict today is between two virtues justice and mercy and argues that these two virtues are organically linked through the common experience of compassion In an unjust world justice cannot establish itself but requires projects of merciful benevolence to subvert injustice and to establish justice fully not only as liberal procedural justice but also as egalitarian economic justice

Christian Perspectives on Legal Thought Michael W. McConnell, Robert Cochran, Angela C. Carmella, 2008-10-01 This book explores for the first time the broad range of ways in which Christian thought intersects with American legal theory Eminent legal scholars including Stephen Carter Thomas Shaffer Elizabeth Mensch Gerard Bradley and Marci Hamilton describe how various Christian traditions including the Catholic Calvinist Anabaptist and Lutheran traditions understand law and justice society and the state and human nature and human striving The book reveals not only the diversity among Christian legal thinkers but also the richness of the Christian tradition as a source for intellectual and ethical approaches to legal inquiry The contributors bring various perspectives to the subject Some engage the prominent schools of legal thought liberalism legal realism critical legal studies feminism critical race theory and law and economics Others address substantive areas including environmental criminal contract torts and family law as well as professional responsibility Together the essays introduce a new school of legal thought that will make a signal contribution to contemporary discussions of law

Let Justice Flow Like Water Joshua M. Greever, D. A. Horton, Justin McLendon, 2025-06-01 Edited by Joshua M Greever D A Horton and Justin McLendon Let Justice Flow Like Water addresses the strained relationship between social justice the gospel and the mission of the church In response to the misuse of Scripture to promote personal ends the volume reorients the conversation around justice and centers it in the biblical text and its theological implications The authors provide practical wisdom and points of application to pastors ministry leaders and students The authors examine the most frequently cited texts on biblical justice through a coherent biblical and systematic theological method The result is a glimpse into God's heart for justice and his desire for humanity especially the church to share this heart The volume's theology is supplemented by practical guidance to pastors so that they can lead their churches to embrace the gospel and social justice properly understood Let Justice Flow Like Water serves as an irenic reminder to pastors students and educated lay people to return to the biblical text to understand it more accurately and to reengage and understand one another in a winsome fashion for the sake of the gospel the mission of the church and the glory of God

Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines Deane E. D. Downey, Stanley E. Porter, 2009-04-15

This book an edited compilation of twenty nine essays focuses on the difference s that a Christian worldview makes for the disciplines or subject areas normally tauht in liberal arts colleges and universities Three initial chapters of introductory material are followed by twenty six essays each dealing with the essential elements or issues in the academic discipline involved These individual essays on each discipline are a unique element of this book These essays also treat some of the specific differences in perspective or procedure that a biblically informed Christian perspective brings to each discipline Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines in intended principally as an introductory textbook in Christian worldview courses for Christian college or university students This volume will aslo be of interest to Christian students in secular post secondary institutions who may be encountering challenges to their faith both implicit and explicit from peers or professors who assume that holding a strong Christian faith and pursuing a rigorous college or university education are essentially incompatible This book should also be helpful for college and university professors who embrace the Christian faith but whose post secondary academic background because of its secular orientation has left them inadequately prepared to intelligently apply the implications of their faith to their particular academic specialty Such specialists be they professors or upper level graduate students will find the extensive bibliographies of recent scholarship at the end of the individual chapters particularly helpful Downey and Porter present a unique contribution to the perennial question of how faith interacts with the academic disciplines Numerous factors contribute to this book s significance the common conviction that one s Christian beliefs ought to shape the contents of one s teaching the variety of perspectives and opinions and the wide range of academic disciplines under discussion The essays originating among the excellent faculty of Trinity Western University will deservedly be much used in undergraduate colleges and universities Hans Borsma J I Packer Professor of Theology Regent College Few faculty Christian or otherwise understand what their colleagues in other departments are doing or why This collection of essays is not only an excellent introduction to the whole scope of academic enterprises but to the unique and important relationship between each discipline and the Christian faith An important book not only for the entire range of faculty but for students yearning to understand both their Christian faith and what is being taught in the classroom James W Sirf author of the Universe Next Door and with co author carl Peraino Deepest Differences A Christian Atheist Dialogue Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is a book long overdue It will serve as an outstanding textbook for interdisciplinary courses But this book is more than that Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is a book that everyone concerned with Christian thought especially in the context of the Academy will want to read I highly recommend it Craig A Evans Payment Distinguished Professor of New Testament Acadia Divinity College Nova Scotia
