Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhouse, Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity

Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute
