Just Fun:

The Conservator, 1911 Raising Cain Dan Kindlon, Ph.D., Michael Thompson, PhD, 2009-08-05 The stunning success of Reviving Ophelia Mary Pipher's landmark book showed a true and pressing need to address the emotional lives of girls. Now finally here is the book that answers our equally timely and critical need to understand our boys. In Raising Cain Dan Kindlon Ph.D. and Michael Thompson Ph.D. two of the country's leading child psychologists share what they have learned in more than thirty-five years of combined experience working with boys and their families. They reveal a nation of boys who are hurting: sad, afraid, angry, and silent. Statistics point to an alarming number of young boys at high risk for suicide, alcohol, and drug abuse, violence, and loneliness. Kindlon and Thompson set out to answer this basic, crucial question: What do boys need that they're not getting? They illuminate the forces that threaten our boys, teaching them to believe that cool equals macho, strength, and stoicism. Cutting through outdated theories of mother-blame, boy biology, and testosterone, Kindlon and Thompson shed light on the destructive emotional training our boys receive: the emotional miseducation of boys. Through moving case studies and cutting-edge research, Raising Cain paints a portrait of boys systematically steered away from their emotional lives by adults and the peer culture of cruelty. Boys who receive little encouragement to develop qualities such as compassion, sensitivity, and warmth. The good news is that this doesn't have to happen. There is much we can do to prevent it. Kindlon and Thompson make a compelling case that emotional literacy is the most valuable gift we can offer our sons, urging parents to recognize the price boys pay when we hold them to an impossible standard of manhood. They identify the social and emotional challenges that boys encounter in school and show how parents can help boys cultivate emotional awareness and empathy, giving them the vital connections and support they need to navigate the social pressures of youth. Powerfully written and deeply felt, Raising Cain will forever change the way we see our sons and will transform the way we help them to become happy and fulfilled young men. Paul McCartney and His Creative Practice Phillip McIntyre, Paul Thompson, 2021-08-10 This book provides fresh insight into the creative practice developed by Paul McCartney over his extended career as a songwriter, record producer, and performing musician. It frames its examination of McCartney's work through the lens of the systems model of creativity developed by Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi and combines this with the research work of Pierre Bourdieu. This systems approach is built around the basic structures of idiosyncratic agents like McCartney himself and the choices he has made as a creative individual. It also locates his work within social fields and cultural domains, all crucial aspects of the creative system that McCartney continues to be immersed in. Using this tripartite system, the book includes analysis of McCartney's creative collaborations with musicians, producers, artists, and filmmakers and provides a critical analysis of the Romantic myth, which forms a central tenet of popular music. This engaging work will have interdisciplinary appeal to students and scholars of the psychology of creativity, popular music sociology, and cultural studies. These Kids Kysa Nygreen, 2013-05-07 Few would deny that getting ahead is a legitimate goal of learning, but the phrase implies a cruel hierarchy a student does not simply get ahead but gets ahead of others In These Kids Kysa Nygreen turns a critical eye on this paradox Offering the voices and viewpoints of students at a last chance high school in California she tells the story of students who have in fact been left behind Detailing a youth led participatory action research project that she coordinated Nygreen uncovers deep barriers to educational success that are embedded within educational discourse itself Struggling students internalize descriptions of themselves as at risk low achieving or troubled and by adopting the very language of educators they also adopt its constraints and presumption of failure Showing how current educational discourse does not ultimately provide an adequate vision of change for students at the bottom of the educational hierarchy she levies a powerful argument that social justice in education is impossible today precisely because of how we talk about it

Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1989 A Grotesque Animal Amy Lee Lillard,2024-06-05 At the age of forty three Amy Lee Lillard learned she was autistic She learned she was part of a community of unseen women who fell through the gaps due to medical bias and social stereotypes A Grotesque Animal explores the making unmaking and making again of a woman with an undiagnosed disorder How did a working class background and a deep rooted Midwest culture of silence lead to hiding in plain sight for decades How did sexuality and anger hide the roots of trauma among the women in her family And what does it mean to be a queer disabled aging woman a descendent of wild but tamed mothers and a survivor of the things patriarchy inflicts Through wide ranging styles and a combination of personal storytelling and cultural analysis Lillard dissects anger sexuality autistic masking bodies punk and female annihilation to create a new picture of modern women
