Black Woman on Board Claudia Hampton the California State University and the Fight to Save Affirmative Action examines the leadership strategies that Black women educators have employed as influential power brokers in predominantly white colleges and universities in the United States Author Donna J Nicol tells the extraordinary story of Dr Claudia H Hampton the California State University CSU system's first Black woman trustee who later became the board's first woman chair and her twenty year fight 1974-94 to increase access within the CSU for historically marginalized and underrepresented groups Amid a growing white backlash against changes brought on by the 1960s Civil Rights and Black Power Movements Nicol argues that Hampton enacted sly civility to persuade fellow trustees CSU system officials and state lawmakers to enforce federal and state affirmative action mandates Black Woman on Board explores how Hampton methodically played the game of boardmanship using the soft power she cultivated amongst her peers to remove barriers that might have impeded the implementation and expansion of affirmative action policies and programs In illuminating the ways that Hampton transformed the CSU as the affirmative action trustee this remarkable book makes an important contribution to the history of higher education and to the historiography of Black women's educational leadership in the post

Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1967 Encyclopedia of Multicultural Education Bruce Mitchell, Robert E. Salisbury, 1999-05-30 In the study of multicultural education there are key names places concepts and legal actions which provide a foundation for the field This reference includes more than 400 entries from a broad range of topics related to multicultural education which the authors define as education geared toward reducing bias ensuring equity and promoting understanding of the self and others Each item in the encyclopedia has been chosen for its value in illuminating one or more particular concerns in the field Each entry not only helps to identify and place in an historical perspective a concept place person event or legal action but also links that topic to an important aspect of multicultural education While the encyclopedia provides coverage of numerous terms from the social sciences and discusses various court decisions and historical events it also includes entries for notable persons from a wide range of cultural groups These persons exemplify the achievements and diversity of America's many cultures and are often discussed within a multicultural curriculum In addition the volume provides entries for cultural and ethnic groups These entries discuss the educational needs and experiences of the group Thus there are entries for such groups as African Americans Anglo Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Jewish Americans for organizations such as the Anti Defamation League of B'nai B'rith for several Native American people for persons such as George Washington Carver Geronimo and Jesse Jackson and for numerous terms and concepts such as busing institutional racism gender equity quota systems and reverse discrimination Entries provide bibliographic information and the volume concludes with a selected general bibliography Blowout! Mario T. García, Sal Castro, 2011-03-21 In March 1968 thousands of Chicano students walked out of their East Los Angeles high schools and middle schools to protest decades of inferior and discriminatory education in the so called Mexican Schools During these historic walkouts or blowouts the students were led by Sal Castro a courageous and charismatic Mexican American teacher who encouraged the students to make their grievances public after school administrators and school board members failed to listen to them The resulting blowouts sparked the beginning of the urban Chicano Movement of the late 1960s and early

1970s the largest and most widespread civil rights protests by Mexican Americans in U S history This fascinating testimonio or oral history transcribed and presented in Castro s voice by historian Mario T Garcia is a compelling highly readable narrative of a young boy growing up in Los Angeles who made history by his leadership in the blowouts and in his career as a dedicated and committed teacher Blowout fills a major void in the history of the civil rights and Chicano movements of the 1960s particularly the struggle for educational justice

Border Correspondent Ruben Salazar, 2024-07-26 This first major collection of former Los Angeles Times reporter and columnist Ruben Salazar s writings is a testament to his pioneering role in the Mexican American community in journalism and in the evolution of race relations in the U S Taken together the articles serve as a documentary history of the Chicano Movement of the 1960s and of the changing perspective of the nation as a whole Since his tragic death while covering the massive Chicano antiwar moratorium in Los Angeles on August 29 1970 Ruben Salazar has become a legend in the Chicano community As a reporter and later as a columnist for the Los Angeles Times Salazar was the first journalist of Mexican American background to cross over into the mainstream English language press He wrote extensively on the Mexican American community and served as a foreign correspondent in Latin America and Vietnam This first major collection of Salazar s writing is a testament to his pioneering role in the Mexican American community in journalism and in the evolution of race relations in the United States Taken together the articles serve as a documentary history of the Chicano Movement of the 1960s and of the changing perspective of the nation as a whole Border Correspondent presents selections from each period of Salazar s career The stories and columns document a growing frustration with the Kennedy administration a young Cesar Chavez beginning to organize farm workers the Vietnam War and conflict between police and community in East Los Angeles One of the first to take investigative journalism into the streets and jails Salazar s first hand accounts of his experiences with drug users and police ordinary people and criminals make compelling reading Mario Garcia s introduction provides a biographical sketch of Salazar and situates him in the context of American journalism and Chicano history This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996
