Adrenaline Junkies Craig Alan Hartpence, 2008-05 This unique adventure based on fiction is a story told in first person about Jason Holt A paramedic Emergency Medical Service EMS chief for a county ambulance service During an annual quality assurance review of EMS records he discovers several reports that have an unusual connection between them 5500 to be exact that were healthy geriatric patients who died of natural causes during transport by the ambulance service and were connected to a single individual The bigger picture appeared to be one of the largest serial killings ever recorded He needed more evidence to secure his claim Near the end of his investigation he discovers only circumstantial evidence that points to not one individual but a ring of individuals involved in this crime Early one morning he prepares for a state inspection of the ambulance service While he waits for the state inspectors to arrive he returns to his investigation discovering the final key to his puzzle Some who have experienced the near death process report that in their minds their life flashes before their eyes Images he reviews are from past lessons learned Rules of Engagement while running on adrenaline and attending the EMS School of Hard Knocks Jason's graphic accounts of his past are burnt into his subconscious from adrenaline rushes the payoff from running emergency the thrill of a challenge and a life saved Reliving his personal struggles with the high rolling lifestyle of the paramedic image in the 1970's and 80's the sexual and drug opportunities the mental trauma he receives and the pitfalls vs rewards of his profession He can't quit he's an ADRENALINE JUNKIE

Political Junkies Claire Bond Potter, 2020-07-07 A wide ranging history of seventy years of change in political media and how it transformed and fractured American politics With fake news on Facebook trolls on Twitter and viral outrage everywhere it's easy to believe that the internet changed politics entirely In Political Junkies historian Claire Bond Potter shows otherwise revealing the roots of today's dysfunction by situating online politics in a longer history of alternative political media From independent newsletters in the 1950s to talk radio in the 1970s to cable television in the 1980s pioneers on the left and right developed alternative media outlets that made politics more popular and ultimately more partisan When campaign operatives took up e mail blogging and social media they only supercharged these trends At a time when political engagement has never been greater and trust has never been lower Political Junkies is essential reading for understanding how we got here
