Mary Brown, 2002. An explanation of the way in which the study of art can act as a trigger for change in prisoners. This stimulating work is based on conversations with artists including people in prison or who were once imprisoned. It charts the importance of creative activity as an instrument of personal change. As the author is compelled to say, Individuals can and do change. If there is a message in these stories, this is it: we need to listen, understand and act upon it. The physical walls around prisons must not become mental walls keeping us from understanding the worlds of those within. We are all members of the society that builds the prison walls. The Same Inside: Poems about Empathy and Friendship Roger Stevens, Matt

Goodfellow, 2018-01-11. The Same Inside is a sweet and thoughtful collection of poems for children about friendship, empathy and respect by three of the nation's best loved poets: Liz Brownlee, Matt Goodfellow and Roger Stevens. true story of the dark underbelly of a 1960s hippie utopia. Laurel Canyon in the 1960s and early 1970s was a magical place where a dizzying array of musical artists congregated to create much of the music that provided the soundtrack to those turbulent times. Members of bands like the Byrds, the Doors, Buffalo Springfield, the Monkees, the Beach Boys, the Turtles, the Eagles, the Flying Burrito Brothers, Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention, Steppenwolf, CSN, Three Dog Night and Love, along with such singer-songwriters as Joni Mitchell, Judy Collins, James Taylor and Carole King, lived together and jammed together in the bucolic community nestled in the Hollywood Hills. But there was a dark side to that scene as well. Many didn't make it out alive and many of those deaths remain shrouded in mystery to this day. Far more integrated into the scene than most would like to admit was a guy by the name of Charles Manson along with his murderous entourage. Also floating about the periphery were various political operatives, up and coming politicians and intelligence personnel, the same sort of people who gave birth to many of the rock stars populating the canyon. And all the canyon's colorful characters: rock stars, hippies, murderers and politicians happily coexisted alongside a covert military installation The Guide Inside Mark Brazee, 2014-08-01 God has given every believer an inward compass to point the way through life The Spirit of God is The Guide Inside your built in 24 7 365 guide through every decision you ll ever make He has the answer to every question He knows everything about everything And he holds the blueprint for your life Yet God s will isn t Railway Review , 1918
