Heavy Metal, Gender and Sexuality Florian Heesch, Niall Scott, 2016-07-07 Heavy Metal Gender and Sexuality brings together a collection of original interdisciplinary critical essays exploring the negotiated place of gender and sexuality in heavy metal music and its culture. Scholars debate the current state of play concerning masculinities, femininities, queerness, identity, aesthetics, and monstrosities in an area of music that is sometimes mistakenly treated as exclusively sustaining a masculinist hegemony. The book combines a broad variety of perspectives on the main topic regarding gender in connection to the history of the genre, the range of metal subgenres, heavy metal's multidimensional scope, music lyrics, performance style, illustrations, men and women sexualities, and various local and global perspectives. Heavy Metal Gender and Sexuality is a text that opens up the world of heavy metal to reveal that it is a very diverse and ground-breaking stage where gender play is at the centre of its theatricality and sustains its mass appeal.

Art vs. TV Francesco Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies, Art vs. TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television. With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation, Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works, installations, performances, interventions, and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television. The artists discussed belong to different generations: those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art, Fluxus, and Happening; and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories; to those arriving in the 2000s, an era in which, through reality shows and the Internet, anybody could potentially become a media personality; and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace. These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television, exposing an incongruence, an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange.
