Reside, 2023 Thousands of shows have opened on Broadway Why do we remember some and not others The musical theatre repertory is not composed of titles popular in the theatre but by those with successful cast recordings movie versions or even illegal bootlegs on YouTube The shows audiences know and the texts and music they expect to hear when they attend a production are defined by media consumed at home more than by memories of performances witnessed in the theatre For example author Doug Reside shows that it is no accident that the serious book musical with a fixed score developed in the 1940s when commercially pressed and marketed record albums made it possible to record most of the score of a new musical in a fixed medium And Hamilton a musical with dense lyrics and revolutionary musical style would not have been as easily accessible to world audiences if most hadn't already had the opportunity to learn the score by listening to free digital streams of the original cast recording The technologies that made these media possible developed concurrently with and shaped the American musical as an art form Reside uncovers how the affordances and limitations of these technologies established a repertory of titles that are most frequently performed and defined by the texts used in these performances Fixing the Musical argues that the musicals we most remember are those which most effectively used their era's best recording and distribution technologies to document and share the work with those who would never see the original production on Broadway Schoenberg's Atonal Music Jack Boss, 2019-07-04 Portrays Schoenberg's atonal music as successions of motives and pitch class sets that flesh out musical idea and basic image frameworks The Complete Book of 1940s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz, 2015-02-02 The debut of Oklahoma in 1943 ushered in the modern era of Broadway musicals and was followed by a number of successes that have become beloved classics Shows produced on Broadway during this decade include Annie Get Your Gun Brigadoon Carousel Finian's Rainbow Pal Joey On the Town and South Pacific Among the major performers of the decade were Alfred Drake Gene Kelly Mary Martin and Ethel Merman while other talents who contributed to shows include Irving Berlin Gower Champion Betty Comden Adolph Green Agnes de Mille Lorenz Hart Alan Jay Lerner Frederick Loewe Cole Porter Jerome Robbins Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II In The Complete Book of 1940s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz examines every musical and revue that opened on Broadway during
