Our Global Wave of Change Terry Sands, 2012-07 If you think you are losing your mind you are not alone Our world is changing very fast In fact the change is now exponential We have never seen this rate of change before We are now facing an epidemic of suicides Many people are taking their own life because they cannot keep up with the change We are moving forward with wonderful incentives innovations and inventions with one exception our mental system is breaking down It all starts when you feel you know something inside but you don t know what it is Here is an abbreviated statement of one young person an 18 year old girl There was a deep yearning of darkness inside that just ached all the time I craved and wanted to end everything by ending my life That was the resolution The Material in this book enlightened my perception of my reality because there is a purpose and there is a meaning We have to wake up humanity does In this book I discuss why our mind simply cannot keep up with the present pace of change with the way we use it now This new breed of change is challenging our mental foundation and our reality In one part we look at how this change is affecting us and some of the symptoms that indicate you may be affected by this Change Finally we look at how to shift your mind into high gear so you can keep up and keep going
