I Am that I Am James Thomas, 1984      Metaphysics; or, the Science of Perception John MILLER (of Princeton, N.J.), 1875      Metaphysics, Or the Science of Perception John Miller, 1875      Metaphysics John Miller, 1904      Spiritual Crisis Fransje de Waard, 2013-07-22 The American comedienne Lily Tomlin once observed with surprise that we call it praying when we talk to God and schizophrenia when God talks back to us In this book people speak about inner experiences in which they perceived themselves and the world so differently that they thought they were going mad Experiences of existential voids heights and depths freezing wastes and silences of pure energy love and fear oneness and chaos They found no explanation in science or religion traditional standards of normality and morality brought them no further than madness and heresy From sheer necessity they learned to steer by a sort of inner compass and began to tap unconventional resources This gave their experience on balance the depth and dynamism of a spiritual transformation which they would not have wanted to miss Since 1994 such spiritual crises have acquired an official place in psychiatric diagnostics namely as non pathological episodes Knowledge and insight fall substantially short however both in professional circles and among the public at large In this book the author shows how transpersonal psychology interprets such crises as the growing pains of human consciousness This wider perspective transcends the traditional individual frameworks of the life sciences parallel to the earlier shift of classical mechanics to quantum physics At a time that resounds with demands for meaningfulness and which seems engrossed in a holistic model of reality this book sets about giving a place within this perspective to the phenomenon of the spiritual crisis      The Word and the Spiritual Realities (the I and the Thou) Ferdinand Ebner, 2021 This volume will constitute the first published English translation of Ferdinand Ebner's seminal 1921 work Das Wort und die geistigen realit ten long available in major languages but never in English It is frequently compared with Martin Buber's I and Thou published in 1923 which actually draws its central I Thou insight from Ebner In recent centuries Philosophy reflects a turn toward the autonomous subject vs a biblical sense of person The limits failures of science manifest in the horrors of World War I led to the emergence of a Dialogical Personalist Philosophy in reaction to the universal doubt of Cartesian thought and to German Idealism which engages the idea or representation but not the reality of things in themselves The core of Ebner human speech is constitutive of human existence humans are given the word Having the word is a miraculous gift from God It is only in the word in language that an I meets a Thou that relationship and self identity can occur and this word is given in Jesus Christ the Word made flesh In the beginning was the Word Jesus the Logos of St John's Gospel mediates between God and man and stands between I and Thou It is through Jesus that it is possible to address God in the human thou The key to life's meaning to the centrality of relationship and to God's continuous action in His creation is found in the I Thou question why the I can never be found in itself and so must look in the thou while the false I will try to possess the thou as an object of power This is Ebner's critique of idealist thought reality truth and personal identity are neither ideas nor found in ideas therefore Descartes cogito must be rejected for the existence of the I can't be founded or proved by solitary thinking but only in relation with a thou
