Logical Analysis and Contemporary Theism John Donnelly, Analysis and Metaphysics Keith Lehrer, 2012-12-06 AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH This collection of essays in honor of Roderick M Chisholm is the work of his former students The book was conceived and the original contributors invited by Richard Taylor We restricted the contributors to former students of Chisholm as a special tribute to his acknowledged as a teacher of philosophy The profundity of his contributions to genius epistemology and metaphysics are acknowledged throughout the philosophical world Those who have been present at his lectures and seminars who have been incited to philosophical cerebration by the clarity and precision of his exposition know that his impact on contemporary philosophy far exceeds the influence of the written word It is we think appropriate that his students should reserve for themselves the privilege of honoring Chisholm in this way as his 60th birthday draws near The tribute paid to Chisholm in Taylor's essay conveys a personal impression I shall consequently refrain from personal reminiscence here and instead mention some of the highlights of an illustrious life Chisholm was born on November 27 1916 in North Attleboro Massachusetts He married Eleanor F Parker in 1943 and raised three children with her He received an A B from Brown in 1938 a Ph D from Harvard in 1942 and served in the U S Army from 1942 to 1946

Eclipse in Mission Rob Goodwin, 2012-07-06 A silent crisis has been taking place for some time now an ongoing eclipse in mission whereby our understanding of what it is has been obscured by the idols of our Christian passions and biblical perspectives Wherever that crisis has been perceived energetic responses have been proposed and much has been done in the name of and for the sake of mission However those responses themselves have often overshadowed the problem of the identity of Christian mission And so we remain in the darkness of understanding mission as we always have done We even impose these understandings onto God calling Him a missionary God and we project our idols of mission onto the sacred Word Here then is an uncomfortable but necessary critique of modern mission and the ground from which it has grown Here too is the proposition of a better basis for understanding what mission is and for outworking it aright in all of our lives By articulating a new paradigm for Christian mission the eclipsed problem of mission in crisis will have been resolved and the missional potential of a global church dynamic with the very Spirit and presence of the living God will be released

Chua, 2024-11-06 Quining and Unquining Qualia critically examines Daniel Dennett's claim that qualia our subjective sensations are illusions that should be dismissed from consciousness studies The book introduces the epistemic distance hypothesis proposing that qualia are essential aspects of consciousness but lie beyond the reach of current scientific methods It further argues that qualia distinguish human experience from artificial intelligence challenging their elimination Aimed at philosophers of mind cognitive scientists psychologists and AI researchers this book is also a valuable resource for undergraduate graduate and postgraduate philosophy students It offers fresh insights into the debate on consciousness the limits of science and the human AI divide making it a key text for those exploring these philosophical challenges

Biblical Errancy Norman L. Geisler, 2004-08-04 Philosophy has given us insights into the reflections of thinkers on such subjects as God mankind the world and the possibility of knowing ultimate reality The processes of reasoning and the conclusions of logic are often intensely fascinating Dr Geisler reminds us however that the premises and the arguments of philosophy are often faulty leading to a wholly inadequate view of knowledge and revelation He reiterates Paul's warning to the Colossian Christians See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy The contributors to this volume show how the basic presuppositions of many philosophers lead to a denial of a divine inerrant revelation The views of some modern theologians regarding revelation find their roots in such deceptive philosophy Chapter titles are Inductivism Materialism and Rationalism Bacon Hobbes and Spinoza Norman L Geisler Skepticism Hume Gary R Habermas Agnosticism Kant W David Beck Transcendentalism Hegel Winfried Corduan Existentialism Kierkegaard E Herbert Nygren Atheism Nietzsche Terry L Miethe Noncognitivism Wittgenstein John S Feinberg Mysticism Heidegger Howard M Ducharme Jr
