Hunt's Hand-Book to the Official Catalogues of the Great Exhibition Robert Hunt, 1851 A renowned chemist, photographer and scholar Robert Hunt was a passionate advocate of popular education and the ideal choice to author an accessible and informative handbook to the greatest educational event of the nineteenth century. Published in 1851 while the Great Exhibition was still welcoming visitors in Hyde Park, Hunt's Hand Book is an encyclopaedia of Victorian material science, chemistry, engineering and design. While an array of catalogues, pamphlets and guides told the story of the exhibition's conception and construction, Hunt reserved his pages for a detailed and comprehensive account of the exhibits themselves. Consequently, this two-volume work quickly established itself as the authoritative guide to the exhibits, their manner of manufacture and practical application in the modern world. Aided by a series of meticulous plans, Volume 1 leads readers through the celebrated Medieval Court and spectacular and varied displays of agricultural produce, weaponry and porcelain.

Hunting the Elephant in Africa and Other Recollections of Thirteen Years' Wanderings C. H. Stigand, 2013-03-05 The book contains the recollections of one of the most noted big game hunters and explorers of Africa, originally published in 1913. The book will appeal to every lover of wilderness adventure and every person who values the observations of an excellent field naturalist. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high-quality modern editions using the original artwork and text.

The Molecule Hunt: Archaeology and the Search for Ancient DNA Martin Jones, 2011-11-07 A revolution is underway in archaeology. Working at the cutting edge of genetic and molecular technologies, researchers have been probing the building blocks of ancient life—DNA, proteins, fats—to rewrite our understanding of the past. Their discoveries, including a Mitochondrial Eve, the woman from whom all modern humans descend, and analyses that have helped revise the human genealogical tree and answer such questions as "How different are we from the Neanderthals?" "Who first domesticated horses and ancient grasses?" "What was life like for our ancestors?" Here is science at its most engaging.

Hunt To Kill Dave Distel, Lynn Distel, 2009-12-01 Innocent Prey On November 29, 1992, Judy Blake Moilanen, 35, took her dogs for a walk in the north Michigan woods. It was the last time she would be seen alive. She was found shot through the chest, a seeming hunting accident victim. But state police Sergeant Bob Ball remained skeptical. Naked Greed Judy's husband, Bruce, 37, was the beneficiary of insurance policies with accidental death clauses that would pay off $330,000 in claims. Disturbing facts soon surfaced about a prior incident in which Judy had narrowly escaped being killed by a concrete block that had fallen from the roof where her husband was working. On a separate occasion, a fire had broken out as she and her 3-year-old daughter slept alone in the house. Final Justice Bruce Moilanen was a debt dodger and chiseler obsessed with a happily married woman who regarded him only as a pest. For months, Sergeant Ball painstakingly gathered evidence against Moilanen, yet there was still no sign of a murder weapon as the trial date approached. Would a youthful prosecutor be able to overcome a tenacious defense and the specter of reasonable doubt to prove that Judy Moilanen's death was anything but accidental and every bit an act of cold blooded murder Destined to be a classic a spell binding tale Green Bay Press Gazette A riveting true story of murder Minneapolis Star Tribune 16 Pages Of Shocking Photos Dave Distel was a writer editor and columnist for the Los Angeles Times for over twenty years before moving to the Upper Peninsula where he now resides with his wife and collaborator Lynn Their work has drawn attention from national media including Court TV's Forensic Files
