

Serves 4 to 6.

Combine the butter and oil in a large frypan. Add the green peppers, onion, garlic, salt, and pepper. Sauté until the peppers and onion are soft. HOTTEN,2023-04-30 Slang like everything else changes much in the course of time and though but fifteen years have elapsed since this Dictionary was first introduced to the public alterations have since then been many and frequent in the subject of which it treats The first issue of a work of this kind is too ever beset with difficulties and the compiler was always aware that though under the circumstances of its production the book was an undoubted success it necessarily lacked many of the elements which would make that success lasting and cause the Slang Dictionary to be regarded as an authority and a work of reference not merely among the uneducated but among people of cultivated tastes and inquiring minds For though the vulgar use of the word Slang applies to those words only which are used by the dangerous classes and the lowest grades of society the term has in reality and should have as every one who has ever studied the subject knows a much wider significance Bearing this in mind the original publisher of this Dictionary lost no opportunity vi of obtaining information of a useful kind which could hardly find place in any other book of reference with the intention of eventually bringing out an entirely new edition in which all former errors should be corrected and all fresh meanings and new words find a place His intention always was to give those words which are familiar to all conversant with our colloquialisms and locutions but which have hitherto been connected with an unwritten tongue a local habitation and to produce a book which in its way would be as useful to students of philology as well as to lovers of human nature in all its phases as any standard work in the English language The squeamishness which tries to ignore the existence of slang fails signally for not only in the streets and the prisons but at the bar on the bench in the pulpit and in the Houses of Parliament does slang make itself heard and as the shortest and safest means to an end understood too My predecessor the original compiler did not live to see his wish become an actual fact and failing him it devolved upon me to undertake the task of revision and addition How far this has been accomplished the curious reader who is possessed of a copy of each edition can best judge for himself by comparing any couple of pages he may select Of my own share in the work I wish to say nothing as I have mainly benefited by the labours of others but I may say vii that when I undertook the position of editor of what with the smallest possible stretch of fancy may now be called a new book I had no idea that the alteration would be nearly so large or so manifest However as the work is now done it will best speak for itself and as good wine needs no bush I will leave it in all hope of their tenderness to those readers who are best qualified to say how the task has been consummated In conclusion it is but fair for me to thank as strongly as weak words will permit those gentlemen who have in various ways assisted me To two of them who are well known in the world of literature and who have not only aided me with advice but have placed many new words and etymologies at my service I am under particular obligation With this I beg to subscribe myself the reader s most obedient servant
