Department of Bibliography,1978-11      The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton,2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj i ek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6 8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of i ek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul s dynamic of sin s deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law      The Emergence of Sin Matthew Croasmun,2017 Commentators have long argued about whether to read Paul s personification of Sin in Romans literally or figuratively Matthew Croasmun suggests both that the cosmic power Sin is nothing more than an emergent feature of a vast network of human transgression and that this power is nevertheless a real person      Religious Books and Serials in Print, 1980-1981 ,1980      "The" Westminster and Foreign Quarterly Review ,1850      Paperbound Books in Print ,1992      Interpreter's Concise Commentary Charles M.
