Half Good Samaritan:

Entrepreneurship in Africa Stewart Chibanda, 2010-02-25 Entrepreneurship in Africa explores how our mindset and attitudes affect our enterprises. It offers a 3 Dimensional approach to entrepreneurship: managerial, financial, and spiritual. The book clearly demonstrates that entrepreneurship is a journey full of joy, trials, and tribulations. It demystifies the paradoxical side of entrepreneurship by offering hope to the entrepreneurship journey. It offers a hand holding approach to real life situations. The book offers hope in seemingly hopeless situations in which all odds are against you. It underscores the importance of having an unshakable vision and how your personal experiences are signposts on the journey to success. To survive in business, you have to ask the right questions. Questions like: What is money? How does sin affect my business? Does positive thinking really help in this situation? If I get a lot of money, what business venture should I pursue? This book answers these questions and a lot more. It argues that there is great hope for African businesses to excel if only Africans can change their mindsets if only they have positive internal dialogues and if only we can learn from others that have gone before us both in Africa and beyond. It is time to unlock Africa's wealth through entrepreneurship. It starts by removing some strongholds in our minds. These are more internal than external. Let us start planning today once these barriers are removed. It is often said that it was not raining when Noah started building the ark. Noah had some serious planning and preparations before the flood came. This is what this book seeks to achieve. It hopes to prepare you and give you hope in your entrepreneurship journey.

Kim, 2025-03-23 Many people believe in Jesus. However, most Christians mistakenly think they are living a proper life of faith while engaging in hypocritical religious practices to be seen by men. Those who live their faith to be seen by men are Christian religionists, not true believers. In Matthew 6, Jesus starkly contrasts the religionists with true believers. Take heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men to be seen by them. Otherwise, you have no reward from your Father in heaven. Matthew 6:1 God examines even our hidden thoughts. True believers are those who live before God coram Deo, revering Him, believing in His Word, and following it. Jesus rebuked the hypocritical Pharisees, urging them not to practice their faith to gain people's approval but to live out their faith before God, who sees everything in secret. Those who practice their faith before men coram hominibus to be seen by others are merely Christian religionists Christianity today is overflowing with such religionists They claim to believe in and worship God but in reality they follow their desires and boast in their self righteousness Religionists in a secularized Christianity are convinced they are walking the right path of faith but in truth they are thoroughly deceived by Satan who masquerades as an angel of light They are spiritually blind yet they arrogantly claim to guide others who are also blind These Christian sinners do not realize that they are wretched beings destined for hell yet they confidently believe they have the best faith How tragic this is I earnestly pray that God will grant them the spirit of wisdom and revelation Ephesians 1 17 so they can clearly understand His Word I hope they will recognize their wretched state return to God and receive the grace of salvation through the remission of sins Luke 1 77 May God grant the readers of this book the spirit of wisdom and revelation so that they may richly partake of every spiritual blessing from Heaven found in the Scriptures I also pray that truth seekers with Berean spirits will arise and be anointed as God's workers to save souls who are still imprisoned in the bondage of sin
