Human Right To Peace:

Human Rights and Conflict Julie Mertus, Jeffrey W. Helsing, 2006 Human rights and conflict is divided into three parts each capturing the role played by human rights at a different stage in the conflict cycle Human Rights Janusz Symonides, 2019-04-02 First published in 1998 this first volume of The Manual on Human Rights Education for Universities has been prepared in the hope that it will serve as a teaching aid for institutions of higher education as well as for UNESCO Chairs and focuses on new dimensions and challenges UNESCO's long experience in this field goes back to 1951 when the first guide for teachers on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was published This formed part of UNESCO's efforts to create a comprehensive system of human rights education embracing formal and non formal education Issues explored include peace the environment education discrimination and extreme poverty Redefining Human Rights in the Struggle for Peace and Development Terrence E. Paupp, 2014-01-20 Human rights in peace and development are accepted throughout the Global South as established normative and beyond debate Only in the powerful elite sectors of the Global North have these rights been resisted and refuted The policies and interests of these global forces are antithetical to advancing human rights ending global poverty and respecting the sovereign integrity of States and governments throughout the Global South The link between poverty war and environmental degradation has become evident over the last 60 years further augmenting international consciousness of these issues as interconnected with the rest of the human rights corpus This book examines the history of this struggle and outlines practical means to implement these rights through a global framework of constitutional protections Within this emerging framework it argues that States will be increasingly obligated to formulate policies and programs to achieve peace and development throughout the global society Promoting Peace Through International Law Cecilia Bailliet, Kjetil Mujezinović Larsen, 2015 This book considers the liberal conception of peace within Western philosophy and the principle of peaceful coexistence supported in the East It investigates there is a right to peace by tracing the evolution of the international law of peace through its historical and philosophical origins Human Rights, Peace and Justice in Africa Christof H. Heyns, Karen Stefiszyn, 2006 The Human Rights Industry Alfred de Zayas, 2023-08-01 The promotion and protection of human rights is a pillar of the United Nations enshrined in the Charter the international bill of rights elaborated in General Assembly resolutions and declarations and buttressed by monitoring mechanisms and regional human rights courts After WWII the world demanded respect for collective and individual rights and freedoms including the right to live in peace i.e. freedom from fear and want the right to food water health shelter belief and expression Human dignity was understood as an inalienable entitlement of every member of the human family rights that were juridical justiciable and enforceable It did not take long for these noble goals to be politicized Many States systematically weaponize human rights for geopolitics A human rights industry operates at all levels and instrumentalizes values with the complicity of diplomats politicians non governmental organizations academics journalists independent experts rapporteurs secretariat members and media conglomerates This book addresses the decisive role played by major governmental and private agencies such as the National Endowment for Democracy USAID elite think tanks Council on Foreign Relations Trilateral Commission World Economic Forum and others in shaping a perception of human rights that primarily serves geopolitical interests Major non governmental organizations that once were truly independent including Amnesty and HRW today belong to the leading narrative managers The voting record in the General Assembly and Human Rights Council by China Russia the United States Canada UK EU OIC Group of 77 Non aligned movement etc documents who supports and who subverts human rights Why do the Council and NGOs practice double standards and allow States to brazenly lie blackmail and bully weaker States Under the pretext of providing humanitarian assistance lethal military interventions are conducted e g in Libya emblematic example of how the noble idea of the responsibility to protect was corrupted Propagandistic use of the words human rights democracy rule of law freedom demean them and subvert rational discourse Drawing on more than four decades of working in the field of human rights as UN staff member rapporteur consultant professor and NGO president Alfred de Zayas examines how the tools of implementation of human rights serve to entrench political narratives promoted by the industry

Protecting Human Rights and Building Peace in Post-Violence Societies Nasia Hadjigeorgiou, 2020-02-20 This book critically examines the relationship between protecting human rights and building peace in post violence societies It explores the conditions that must be present and strategies that should be adopted for the former to contribute to the latter The author argues that human rights can aid peacebuilding efforts by helping victims of past violence to articulate their grievance and by encouraging the state to respond to and provide them with a meaningful remedy This usually happens either through a process of adjudication whereby human rights can offer guidance to the judiciary as to the best way to address such grievances or through the passing and implementation of human rights laws and policies that seek to promote peace However this positive relationship between human rights and peace is both qualified and context specific Through an interdisciplinary and comparative analysis of four case studies the book identifies the conditions that can support the effective use of human rights as peacebuilding tools Developing these the book recommends a series of strategies that peacebuilders should adopt and rely on Winner of the Constantinos Emilianides Award in Law for 2020 joint conferment
