Keyguide To Information Sources On The Polar And Cold Regions:

Keyguide to Information Sources on the Polar and Cold Regions William James Mills, P. Speak, 1998 This is the first reference guide to focus on the polar and cold regions of the world as a whole It is divided into three sections Part 1 provides an overview of the literature on polar and cold regions analysing the nature of polar literature which exhibits certain unusual features particularly in the role played by expedition reports Part 2 is a select bibliography and Part 3 is an international directory of organizations related to the subject A detailed index completes the work Library and Information

Sciences in Arctic and Northern Studies Spencer Acadia, 2024-05-17 The role of library and information sciences LIS in for and about Arctic and Northern studies is underexplored This book examines the intersection of LIS and Arctic Northern scholarship research and study by considering the Arctic and North as a global information knowledge society demonstrates practical and applied ways that librarians archivists curators and other information scholars and professionals can participate and have participated in real activities within Arctic and Northern environments explains how LIS as a discipline focused on data information and knowledge has a significant role to play in Arctic and Northern endeavours and emphasises the inter multi disciplinary nature of what are Arctic studies and Northern studies and the placement of LIS into that structure Even though LIS has historically been overlooked in Northern and Arctic matters this book suggests that LIS is in a remarkable position to add value to future Arctic Northern studies This book is of interest to scientists researchers scholars educators professionals and students globally working in Northern and Arctic contexts and or with Northern and Arctic pursuits in mind The Climate of the Arctic Rajmund Przybylak, 2015-10-23 This book is a new and revised second edition of the book The Climate of the Arctic published in 2003 It presents a comprehensive analysis of the current state of knowledge related to the climate of the Arctic using the latest meteorological data All meteorological elements are described in detail and an up to date review of the available literature for each element is given Climatic regions are distinguished and described The monograph also provides an account of the present state of research on climate change and variability in the Arctic for three time scales the Holocene the last Millennium and the instrumental period The book concludes with a presentation of the scenarios of the Arctic climate in the 21st century This monograph is intended for all those with a general interest in the fields of meteorology climatology and with a knowledge of the application of statistics in these areas

International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project World Mapping Today Bob Parry,Chris Perkins,2011-12-22 No detailed description available for World Mapping Today The New Walford Guide to Reference Resources Ray Lester,2005 The New Walford highlights the best resources to use when undertaking a search for accurate and relevant information saving you precious time and effort For those looking for a selective and evaluative reference resource that really delivers on its promise look no further In addition to print sources The New Walford naturally covers an extensive range of e reference sources such as digital databanks digital reference services electronic journal collections meta search engines networked information services open archives resource discovery services and websites of premier organizations in both the public and private sectors But rather than supplying a list of all available known resources as a web search engine might The New Walford subject specialists have carefully selected and evaluated available resources to provide a definitive list of the most appropriate and useful With an emphasis on quality and sustainability the subject specialists have been careful to assess the differing ways that information is framed and communicated in different subject areas As a result the resource evaluations in each subject area are prefaced by an introductory overview of the structure of the relevant literature This ensures that The New Walford is clear easy to use and intuitive Publisher Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford,Marilyn Mullay,Priscilla Schlicke,Library Association,1999 A revised and updated guide to reference material It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area be it journal article CD ROM on line database bibliography encyclopaedia monograph or directory It features full critical annotations and reviewers comments and comprehensive author title and subject indexes The contents include philosophy and psychology religion social sciences sociology statistics politics economics labour and employment land and property business organizations finance and banking and economic surveys economic policies and controls trade and commerce business and management and law public administration social services and welfare education customs and traditions geography biography and history American Reference Books Annual, 2000 Bohdan S.
