Kids Cops And Communities:

Kids, Cops and Communities Marcia R. Chaiken, 1999-02 This report is designed to help law enforcement administrators and officers understand and institute a strategy to help prevent violence community oriented policing services carried out in collaboration with youth serving organizations Popular police prevention approaches such as DARE have helped prepare police officers to work hand in hand in a variety of ways with local affiliates of national youth serving organizations In a growing number of cities police are working with youth groups and finding that violence involving youth is rapidly decreasing The research involved a survey of 579 affiliates of 7 national youth serving organizations Kids, COPS, and Communities Marcia R. Chaiken, 1998 Issues and Practices: Kids, Cops, and Communities , The U S Department of Justice National Criminal Justice Reference Service present the full text of the document entitled Issues and Practices Kids Cops and Communities in PDF format The publication was written by Marcia R Chaiken and published by the National Institute of Justice in June 1998 This report discusses how law enforcement administrators and officers can institute a strategy to help prevent violence by carrying out community oriented policing services in collaboration with youth serving organizations

Community Policing and Peacekeeping Peter Grabosky, 2009-06-25 In modern industrial societies the demand for policing services frequently exceeds the current and foreseeable availability of public policing resources Conversely developing nations often suffer from an inability to provide a basic level of security for their citizens Community Policing and Peacekeeping offers a fresh overview of the challenge NCJRS Catalog ,1998 Resources in Education ,1999 Year in Review National Institute of Justice (U.S.),2000 Community Education and Crime Prevention Carolyn Siemens Ward,1998-10-01 Paperback released by IAP in May 2008 Scholars in various disciplines are recommending comprehensive measures to solve multiple societal as well as individual problems The philosophy of community education has been overlooked but is a workable comprehensive approach to addressing crime As used in this book community education is a philosophy process and program comprised of three overriding and interrelated elements community empowerment community problem solving and the effort to involve all community members in the pursuit of lifelong learning The Hyde Park neighborhood in St Louis has one of the highest rates of reported drug sales and high rates of homicide robbery aggravated assault arson and burglary The community lays claim to several crime inducing variables including population loss a high percentage of population shift resulting in a higher percentage of black population and boarded up housing units a high rate of unemployment a very low per capita income and a high percentage of citizens living below the poverty line and a high percentage of female headed households Nevertheless the people of Hyde Park are participating in a crime prevention approach that is applicable to all communities Insights to urban life and problem solving are provided by community members covering such topics as policing and how it can be improved These insights and others offered by the author are supported by theories and philosophies found in the literature In the process of solving their own problems community members involve themselves in lifelong learning activities and leadership development Written in a style that is appealing to the general public as well as academics it is of special interest to educators community leaders criminologists academics in urban affairs and sociology social workers law enforcement agents and politicians Policing Under Fire Ronald Weitzer,1995-01-01 This is a study of the conditions present in an ethnically divided society that affect police community relations Juvenile Delinquency in a Diverse Society Kristin A. Bates,Richelle S. Swan,2020-01-21 Juvenile Delinquency in a Diverse Society Third Edition presents students with a fresh intersectional examination of juvenile delinquency in the context of real communities and social policies integrating many social factors that shape juvenile delinquency and its control including race ethnicity class gender and sexuality Authors Kristin A Bates and Richelle S Swan use true stories and contemporary examples to link theories of delinquency not just to current public policies but to existing community programs encouraging readers to consider how theories of delinquency can be used to create new policies and programs in their own communities Readers will gain a foundational understanding of the social diversity that contextualizes varying experiences and behavior of juvenile delinquency as well as a deeper appreciation for the policies social justice and community programs that make up the juvenile system Police-Community Relations in Times of Crisis Deuchar, Ross,Crichlow, Vaughn,Seth W. Fallick,2021-04-30 The deaths of Michael Brown and George Floyd at the hands of white police officers uncovered an apparent legitimacy crisis at the heart of American policing Drawing on interviews with officers offenders practitioners and community members this book explores policing changes in the post Ferguson era and informs future policing practice The Community Assessment Center Concept Debra Oldenettel,Madeline Wordes,2000 Truths Among Us Derrick Jensen,2011-09-01 From Derrick Jensen acclaimed author of Endgame and The Culture of Make Believe comes a prescient thought provoking collection of interviews with ten leading writers philosophers teachers and activists To function in this society we are asked to live by lies that humans have the right to take what they want from the earth without giving back that knowledge is limited to that which can be quantified that corporations and governments know what is best for our future Our instinctive outrage at environmental collapse political conspiracy and corporate corruption is stifled by the double speak of popular opinion telling us that the progress of civilization demands unquestioning allegiance to those in power But the brave voices in Truths Among Us seek to help us acknowledge the values we know in our hearts are right and inspire within us the courage to act on them Among those who share their wisdom here is acclaimed sociologist Stanley Aronowitz who shows us that science is but one lens through which we can discover knowledge Luis Rodriguez poet and peacemaker asks us to embrace gang members as people instead of stereotypes while the brilliant Judith Herman helps us gain a deeper understanding of the psychology of abusers in whatever form they may take Paul Stamets reveals the power of fungi whose intelligence like that of so many nonhumans is often ignored And writer Richard Drinnon reminds us that our spiritual paths need not be narrowed by the limiting mythologies of Western civilization Following How Shall I Live My Life and Resistance Against Empire Jensen's third collection of interviews reinforces a simple premise with which he has long challenged his readers if we shut our ears and eyes to the cacophony of consumption oriented distractions and pause to listen to the wisdom of our own hearts the truths among us will reveal themselves Interviewees include George Gerbner Stanley Aronowitz Luis Rodriguez Judith Herman John Keeble Richard Drinnon Paul Stamets Marc Ian Barasch Martin Prechtel and Jane Caputi The Community Assessment Center Concept, OJJDP Juvenile Justice Bulletin, March 2000 ,2000

Handbook of Serious Emotional Disturbance in Children and Adolescents Diane T. Marsh, Mary A.

Fristad, 2002-10-23 The only comprehensive work on SED with practical information on diagnosing and treating children with SED Features contributions by leading experts of SED research and practice Includes a foreword by Kay Jamison a nationally recognized author on mental illness Community Policing Michael Palmiotto, 2011-02-01 This textbook discusses the role of community oriented policing including the police image public expectations ethics in law enforcement community wellness civilian review boards and what the community can do to help decrease crime rates In addition the author covers basic interpersonal skills and how these might vary according to the race sex age and socioeconomic group with which the officer is interacting Finally students learn how to initiate new programs in a community from the planning process and community involvement to dealing with management and evaluating program success How Much Does a Great School Cost? Barbara

J. Smith, 2021-04-01 After examining budgets from all kinds of schools over the past three decades two key findings emerged school budgets reflect school values intentionally or not and there are noteworthy ways to reduce the costs of operating schools This text addresses two ways to gain insight and shed light on the question How much does a great school cost Sixteen educators were asked about their perceptions of greatness in schools innovations worthy of pursuit and barriers to change This examination unpacks the expenditures and revenue options in existing schools as well as costs associated with an envisioned New School This account addresses both an analysis of what is and what could be at the same time as revealing innovative ways to save on schooling expenditures and think differently about schools as potential revenue generating institutions Changing mindsets is at the core of school improvement and while greatness may be defined in different ways the budget will reflect what matters in an institution A great school may not cost as much as you might think but the willingness to re purpose funds and generate revenue can help jump start the engines of change DARE to Say No

Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-02-14 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker-Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality National Institute of Justice Journal ,1998-07 Restorative Community Justice Gordon Bazemore,Mara Schiff,2015-05-20 An anthology of original essays this book presents debates over practice theory and implementation of restorative justice Attention is focused on the movement s direction toward a more holistic community oriented approach to criminal justice intervention
