Interpreting Studies Franz Pöchhacker, 2004 This book introduces students researchers and practitioners to the fast developing discipline of Interpreting Studies Ideology and Conference Interpreting Fei Gao, 2023-12-01 Gao uses the case of conference interpreting at the Summer Davos Forum in China to systematically reveal the ways in which ideology and linguistic re engineering can lead to discourse reconstruction Translation and interpreting can never be wholly neutral practices in multi voiced transnational communication Gao employs an innovative methodological synthesis to examine in depth a range of elements surrounding interpreters ideological positioning These include analysing the appraisal patterns of the source and target texts identifying us and them discourse structures investigating interpreters cognitions and examining the crossmodal means by which interpreters render paralanguage Collectively they bridge the gap between socio political and ideological concerns on the one hand and practical questions of discourse reconstruction in cross language cultural events on the other offering a panoramic perspective An invaluable read for scholars in translation and interpreting studies particularly those with an interest in political discourse or the international relations context Interpreter Training in

Context Jie Liu, 2020-10-07 This book addresses an important yet under researched domain in interpreting education how theoretical training models should be responsive to context To do so it applies the linguistic concept of context to interpreting studies by investigating practices in representative conference interpreting training programmes in Europe and

China After presenting an overview of interpreter training programmes the author describes the need to reassess the applicability of the well established and widely accepted model of interpreting from the Paris School ESIT AIIC model to the Chinese interpreting training scene Building on the theoretical study of context in foreign language classrooms suggested by linguists like Halliday and Hasan 1993 Kramsch 1993 and others the author subsequently constructs a new curriculum comprising a four step approach to consecutive interpreting courses in the Chinese context The rationale for such an approach is justified in accordance with the overall design of context taking into account the four dimensions in a teaching learning environment This book is intended for scholars and graduate students who are interested in translation and interpreting applied linguistics as well as foreign language education It also serves as a practical guide for developing university level translation and interpreting programmes

Revisiting the Interpreter's Role Claudia Angelelli, 2004 Through the development of a valid and reliable instrument this book sets out to study the role that interpreters play in the various settings where they work i.e. the courts the hospitals business meetings international conferences and schools It presents interpreters' perceptions and beliefs about their work as well as statements of their behaviors about their practice For the first time the administration and results of a survey administered across languages in Canada Mexico and the United States offer the reader a glimpse of the interpreters' views in their own words It also discusses the tension between professional ideology and the reality of interpreters at work This book has implications for the theory and practice of interpreting across settings

Advances in Interpreting Research Brenda Nicodemus, Laurie Swabey, 2011 With the growing emphasis on scholarship in interpreting this collection tackles issues critical to the inquiry process from theoretical orientations in Interpreting Studies to practical considerations for conducting a research study As a landmark volume it charts new territory by addressing a range of topics germane to spoken and signed language interpreting research Both provocative and pragmatic this volume captures the thinking of an international slate of interpreting scholars including Daniel Gile Franz P chhacker Debra Russell Barbara Moser Mercer Melanie Metzger Cynthia Roy Minhua Liu Jemina Napier Lorraine Leeson Jens Hessmann Graham Turner Eeva Salmi Svenja Wurm Rico Peterson Robert Adam Christopher Stone Laurie Swabey and Brenda Nicodemus Experienced academics will find ideas to stimulate their passion and commitment for research while students will gain valuable insights within its pages This new volume is essential reading for anyone involved in interpreting research New Frontiers in Forensic Linguistics Monwabisi K. Ralarala, 2019-07-22

The field of forensic linguistics is a niche area that has not enjoyed much participation from the African continent The theme of language and the law in this book is one that straddles two important aspects of the legal history of South Africa in particular and how it has impacted on the country's legal and education systems The declaration by the United Nations of 2019 as The International Year of Indigenous Languages is opportune not only for the launch of this book but for what its research content tells us of the strides taken in ensuring access to justice for all citizens of the world in a language they understand The contributions by authors in this book tell the story of many African citizens and those hailing from beyond our borders who straddle the challenges of linguistic and legal pluralism in courtrooms across their respective countries It is our hope that the contributions made in this book will assist in ensuring human rights become a reality for global citizens where indigenous voices have not been heard and that these citizens will be free to give their testimonies in a language of their choice and that they may be heard and understood The Science of Discourse Arnold Tompkins, 1897

Innovative Practices for Teaching Sign Language Interpreters Cynthia B. Roy, 2000 Presents six dynamic teaching practices that treat interpreting as an active process between two languages and cultures suggesting social interaction sociolinguistics and discourse analysis as more appropriate frameworks The contributors explain how to develop textual coherence skills use role play and recall protocols as teaching strategies and implement graduation portfolios Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Psycholinguistic and Cognitive Inquiries into Translation and Interpreting Aline Ferreira, John W. Schwieter, 2015-01-15 Psycholinguistic and Cognitive Inquiries into Translation and Interpreting presents perspectives and original studies that aim to diversify traditional approaches in translation and interpreting research and improve the quality and generalizability of the field The volume is divided into two parts Part I includes an introductory discussion on the input of psycholinguistics and cognitive science to translation and interpreting along with two state of the art chapters that discuss valid experimental designs while critically reviewing and building on existing work Part II subsequently presents original studies which explore the performance of expert and novice translators using a variety of methodologies such as eye tracking keystroke logging retrospective protocols and post editing machine translation It also presents contributions for exploratory studies on interpreting and for testing several constructs such as language competence and the role of expertise redundancy and working memory capacity This volume is intended to act as a valuable reference for scholars practitioners translators graduate and advanced undergraduate students and anyone wishing to gain an overview of current issues in translation and interpreting from psycholinguistic and cognitive domains
