Divinings: Religion at Harvard Rodney L. Petersen,2014-09-17 Harvard has often been referred to as godless Harvard This is far from the truth Fact is that Harvard is and always has been concerned about religion This volume addresses the reasons for this The story of religion at Harvard in many ways is the story of religion in the United States This edition will clarify this relationship Furthermore the question of religion is central not only to the religious history of Harvard but to its very corporate structure and institutional evolution The volume is divided into three parts and deals with the Formation of Harvard College in 1636 and Evolution of a Republic of Letters in Cambridge First Light Chapters 1 5 Religion in the University the Foundations of a Learned Ministry and the Development of the Divinity School The Augustan Age Chapters 6 9 and the Contours of Religion and Commitment in an Age of Upheaval and Globalization Calm Rising Through Change and Through Storm Chapters 10 12 The story of the central role played by religion in the development of Harvard is a neglected factor in Harvard s history only touched upon in a most cursory fashion by previous publications For the first time George H Williamstells that story as embedded in American culture and subject to intense and continuing academic study throughout the history of the University to this day Replete with extensive footnotes this edition will be a treasure to future historians persons interested in religious history and in the development of theology at first clearly Reformed and Protestant later ecumenical and interfaith MULTICULTURAL ASPECTS OF HUMAN BEHAVIOR Willie V. Bryan, 2014-04-01. This third edition has a title modification in that the previous two editions were titled Multicultural Aspects of Disabilities: A Guide to Understanding and Assisting Minorities in the Rehabilitation Process. This edition is titled Multicultural Aspects of Human Behavior: A Guide to Understanding Human Cultural Development. The reason for the title modification is to expand and emphasize cultural impacts with regard to human behavior, and in doing so, the goal is to identify factors which impact cultural development and cultural perceptions of various groups of people, such as persons with disabilities, ethnic/racial minorities, women, the elderly, as well as gays, lesbians, and people of different religious denominations. Each chapter has an informative outline of the content. Chapters 1 and 2 establish the meaning of culture and understanding the human behavior. Chapter 3 addresses discrimination. Chapter 4 discusses religion. Chapters 6-9 review the African, Asian, Hispanic Americans, and the American Indians. Chapter 10 presents some history of the battles women have faced throughout the years. Chapter 11 addresses the African, Asian, Hispanic American, and American Indian elderly. The concluding chapter defines the gay, lesbian, transgender, and bisexual people and their cultural evolution. This third edition continues the theme of providing information with regard to factors that impact the lives of racial/ethnic minorities, as well as women and the elderly in America; however, the updates and addition of new chapters will make the text a more complete discussion of cultural information needed by professional helpers as they work with their clients and patients.

Application of Neural Technology to Neuro-Management and Neuro-Marketing Ioan Opris, Sorin Cristian Ionescu, Mikhail A. Lebedev, Frederic Boy, Peter Lewinski, Laura Ballerini, 2020-04-03. The Organic Society Carlos Sosa Araque, 2017-04-04. The modern society is determined by a rational economic system based on the individualistic behavior of man, which determines and models social institutions where the elements associated to equality and solidarity are not properly incorporated into the economic systems. We deem it necessary to explore other dimensions of human reality other than rationality in order to accomplish our true purpose: the implementation of a type of organization where collaboration, solidarity, and caring for others shape organizational and social systems. To this end, we must start by reviewing which factors affect human behavior so that a harmonious human social system may be created. Humans cannot be represented only as rational beings in order to deal properly with motivational factors in organizational and social systems Factors other than reason should be included in the sources of motivation of people like heart consciousness and intuition A different type of organization should be based on a different paradigm in order to replace modern organizations The search for this new paradigm may be provided by natural systems A different organizational model can be created based on the organic paradigm in order to build an alternative organizational structure The term organic will denote an organizational net structure which can be modeled as an organic system with properties specific to organic beings such as adaptation integration collaboration equilibrium and flexibility The organic structure is a powerful tool for modeling social organizational and natural structures The organic organization should be based on a higher principle the law of love Man should be able to dream and work for the establishment of more harmonious organizational and social systems by the adoption of this powerful metaphor to create fairer more cooperative and more harmonious social and organizational realities This may lead to the establishment of the organic society by means of incorporating the organic paradigm into social and organizational institutions The law of love and the creation of the organic society show what can be done at both organizational and social levels to design a social order where the separateness can be finally overcome The organic paradigm is a powerful tool to stimulate mans integration to both society and nature potentially more powerful than the existing individualistic and rational paradigms
