Existence And Actuality Conversations With Charles Hartshorne:

Existence and Actuality John B. Cobb, Jr., Franklin I. Gamwell, Existence and Actuality Charles Hartshorne, 1984

Existence and Actuality John B. Cobb, University of Chicago. Divinity School, 1984 Charles Hartshorne's Concept of God S. Sia, 2013-03-14 Charles Hartshorne's considerable writings have been influential in contemporary religious and philosophical thought Not only is he regarded as the leading living representative of process thought as well as a much respected interpreter of Whitehead but he has also established himself as an original and creative thinker in his own right The literature on his philosophy has been rapidly increasing His thought and influence have also been the subject of a number of conferences and gatherings of scholars One of Hartshorne's most notable contributions to contemporary philosophy and theology is his concept of God In his writings he has set out to formulate the idea of deity so as to preserve perhaps increase its religious value while yet avoiding the contradictions which seem inseparable from the idea as customarily defined The result of his efforts has been the development of the concept of a dipolar God insofar as contrasting metaphysical predicates e.g. relative absolute contingent necessary finite infinite and so on are affirmed as applicable to God although always in an eminent way Inasmuch as he has elaborated this concept in close dialogue with classical theism he also refers to it as neo-classical Because of the emphasis he places on the reality of change and becoming in his metaphysics which regards God as the chief exemplification of metaphysical principles the term process has likewise been used to describe his notion of God Process Thought and Roman Catholicism John Becker, Marc A. Pugliese, 2022-03-21 This collection of essays explores convergences and divergences between process thought and Roman Catholicism with the goal of identifying reasons for why process philosophy and theology has not had the same impact in Roman Catholic circles as in Protestantism and of constructively navigating avenues of promising engagement between Process thought and Roman Catholicism In creatively considering the Roman Catholic tradition from the vantage point of Process thought different theoretical perspectives are brought to bear on Catholic characteristics of historical theology fundamental theology systematic theology moral theology social justice and theology of religions While the contributors draw upon a broad range of resources from the disciplines of the physical and social sciences philosophy and ethics from a process perspective the primary methodology employed is theological reflection The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From 1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history The Zero Fallacy and Other Essays in Neoclassical Philosophy Charles Hartshorne,1997 For seven decades Charles Hartshorne has presented his philosophical themes with ingenuity and deep historical awareness comparing his positions in illuminating fashion with those of major figures from Plato to Kant to Popper Integral to Hartshorne s thinking have been bold fresh interpretations of such notions as God freedom change creativity aesthetic meaning the social character of experience and generalized causal possibility with a place for probabilities and open possibilities The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber,2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead s treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker Feelings Charles Birch,1995 Feelings are what matter most in our lives But we are only now beginning to understand what feelings are and how to control them Much has been discovered in recent years about the science of feelings The radical proposition of this book is that feelings cannot be reduced to physics and chemistry yet are as real as physics and chemistry This book breaks new ground in showing how the science of feelings and the feeling of feelings come together It raises the question of feelings not only in humans but in all living creatures including the claims of some that computers may have feelings The Angry Christian Andrew D. Lester,2003-01-01 In this work respected scholar Andrew Lester discusses and incorporates the newest behavioral research models contemporary biblical and theological scholarship constructivist philosophy and narrative theory into a comprehensive pastoral theology of anger In revisiting through the lens of theological anthropology the very subject that brought him to the forefront of scholarship in pastoral care Lester presents engaging new material and innovative new methods of interventions for dealing with this often confusing human emotion Mothership Connections Theodore Walker Jr.,2012-02-01 Bringing a black Atlantic approach to constructive postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders Mothership Connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of W E B Du Bois Charles H Long Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne The author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black Atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity He also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black Atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation On Interpretative Activity Noel Boultong,2006-10-01 Using the ideas of the American scientist and philosopher Charles Sanders Peirce three conceptions of interpretation can be distinguished the Iconic the Indexical and the Intellective This trichotomy is based on Peirce s use of his sign theory and his logic of scientific discovery The Iconic captures what is valuable in itself for an individual interpreter as opposed to the Indexical which is available for public appreciation as an outcome beyond Interpretative activities The Intellective extends the Iconic to include the interpretative activities of groups of interpreters employing appropriate methods of inquiry in a more rigorous and rational way Such distinctions can be used in confronting certain problems in science technology and the arts Rethinking the Ontological Argument Daniel A. Dombrowski,2006-05-29 In recent years the ontological argument and theistic metaphysics have been criticised by philosophers working in both the analytic and continental traditions Responses to these criticisms have primarily come from philosophers who make use of the traditional and problematic concept of God In this volume Daniel A Dombrowski defends the ontological argument against its contemporary critics but he does so by using a neoclassical or process concept of God thereby strengthening the case for a contemporary theistic metaphysics Relying on the thought of Charles Hartshorne he builds on Hartshorne s crucial distinction between divine existence and divine actuality which enables neoclassical defenders of the ontological argument to avoid the familiar criticism that the argument moves illegitimately from an abstract concept to concrete reality His argument thus avoids the problems inherent in the traditional concept of God as static Society and Spirit Joseph A. Bracken,1991 Alfred North Whitehead s master work Process and Reality is intended to extend the cosmological vision of Whitehead in a new direction By interpreting societies within Whitehead's scheme as structured fields of activity the author projects a universe of hierarchically ordered fields of activity up to and including the all encompassing field of activity constituted by the Christian Trinity On Metaphysical Necessity Franklin I. Gamwell,2020-08-01 In this collection of essays Franklin I Gamwell offers a defense of transcendental metaphysics especially in its neoclassical form and builds a case for its importance as a tool for addressing abiding problems in philosophical theology and morality including talk about God human fault moral decision and the relationship of politics and religious freedom In Part I Gamwell argues against Kant and a wide range of contemporary philosophers for the validity of transcendental metaphysics designated in the strict sense He engages with Aquinas Schleiermacher Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr to argue that neoclassical metaphysics for which the divine whole is itself temporal or forever self surpassing provides a more coherent account of God than does classical metaphysics for which the divine whole is completely eternal In Part II Gamwell looks at transcendental metaphysics designated in the broad sense In particular he takes up the moral opportunity with which humans are presented and argues that the moral law depends on a comprehensive good that is a good defined metaphysically in the strict sense He then offers an extended discussion of the relation between transcendental metaphysics and morality and explores Ronald Dworkin's view of the relationship between democracy and religion the question of whether religious activities are properly exempted from generally applicable laws and the constitutional debate about national and states rights Religion and Practical Reason Frank E. Reynolds,David Tracy,1994-10-25 This book contains programmatic essays that focus on broad ranging proposals for re envisioning a discipline of comparative philosophy of religions It also contains a number of case studies focussing on the interpretation of particular religious historical data from comparatively oriented philosophical perspectives Doing Theology Today Schubert M. Ogden,2006-07-01 Here is an essential handbook for all those who would do theology today written by one of America's most distinguished theologians The book is divided into four parts Theology of Theology which extends deepens and renders more persuasive the author's lines of thought on theological prolegomena Theology and Christology which argues that to do theology today one must be concerned above all with the fundamental questions of God and Jesus Theology of Religions which implies that to do theology today is to do it in a truly global context in the presence of the plurality of ways of being human including those represented by non Christian religions Theology in Conversation which claims that to do theology today is to enter into close and sustained conversation with others who either are or have been engaged in the same task of critical reflection The Greening of Protestant Thought Robert Booth Fowler,2000-11-09 The Greening of Protestant Thought traces the increasing influence of environmentalism on American Protestantism since the first Earth Day which took place in 1970 Robert Booth Fowler explores the extent to which ecological concerns permeate Protestant thought and examines contemporary controversies within and between mainline and fundamentalist Protestantism over the Bible's teachings about the environment Fowler explores the historical roots of environmentalism in Protestant thought including debates over God's relationship to nature and the significance of the current environmental crisis for the history of Christianity. Although he argues that mainline Protestantism is becoming increasingly green, he also examines the theological basis for many fundamentalists' hostility toward the environmental movement. In addition, Fowler considers Protestantism's policy agendas for environmental change as well as the impact on mainline Protestant thinking of modern eco-theologies, process and creation theologies, and ecofeminism.

Encyclopedia of Protestantism Hans J. Hillerbrand, 2004-08-02. This Encyclopedia is the definitive reference to the history and beliefs that continue to exert a profound influence on Western thought.
