(Chapters 1 thru 19)

Prologue

Immanuel had always wanted to write a book. Something deep within him wanted to create. Unlike all other books ever written, this book would be uniquely different. Within the covers of this book we will get a glimpse of eternity gazing in a mirror. We will see the unseen. Creation and time will begin and end. But the most unique thing about this book is that Immanuel himself will enter into the pages of his book and live within the confines of its pages, just as his creation lived. Will they recognize the author of their very lives and what would his purpose be in confining himself to the pages of his book? Listen, Immanuel is about to speak...

Chapter 1

First, I will create an environment for my creation to live in. I'm going to paint pictures of myself in all that I create. I think I will create 2 different realms. First I will create a spiritual realm where I will dwell with other spiritual beings that can see me. Then I will create a physical realm where I will also create time and space and matter. I will visit the physical realm occasionally but they won't be able to see me until that time when I come as one of them.

The spiritual realm I have created is beautiful beyond description and the angelic beings I have created to dwell with me there are wonderful companions...but something is missing. I love them dearly and I love that they love me but they are created beings and I sometimes feel alone and long for a companion that is uncreated as I am. A being that is one with me. I know she is within me.

"My Creator."

Michael, one of 3 of my greatest angelic creations, interrupted my thoughts.
