

Knowledge of the historical and sociopolitical context is vital to these. These films make clear that racism and ethnic discrimination are embedded in the social, economic, and political structures. They also show how racism and ethnic discrimination are perpetuated by the dominant culture and how they are resisted by the oppressed.

Exile And Displacement:

Literature of Exile and Displacement Holli Levitsky, 2015-12-11 The text includes excerpts and short stories from an international body of writers examining almost 100 years of literature on the experience of exile from a home country and displacement to the United States Through the selections readers will investigate how the authors have portrayed the journeys hopes and hardships of dislocation and alienation and the role literature may play in creating a sense of community for immigrants refugees and people living in exile

Writing Exile: The Discourse of Displacement in Greco-Roman Antiquity and Beyond Jan Felix Gaertner, 2007-02-28 Exile and displacement are central topics in classical literature Previous research has been mostly biographical and has focused on the three most prominent exiles Cicero Ovid and Seneca By shifting focus to a discourse of exile and displacement in early Greek poetry Greek historiography Cynicism consolatory literature Latin epic Greek literature of the empire and Medieval Latin literature the present volume questions the notion of a distinct psychologically conditioned genre or mode of exile literature It shows how ancient and medieval authors perceive and present their exile according to pre existent literary paradigms style themselves or others as typical exiles and employ exile as a powerful trope to express estrangement elicit readerly sympathy and question political power structures

Cultures of Exile Wendy Everett, Peter Wagstaff, 2004-04-01 Exile is the dominant theme of our times It can be found in the forced migration of populations but also in the temporal cultural and physical alienation of the individual s experiences of the postmodern world This is a world of unstable shifting identities dominated and perhaps most acutely expressed by the fluidity of the visual image The essays in this volume examine issues such as remembering and forgetting trauma and nostalgia time and space social and sexual exclusion in relation to visual media and new technologies cinema and the visual arts The multi faceted and interdisciplinary exploration of exile and displacement whether geographical temporal corporeal or performative provides an important analysis of a significant and fascinating aspect of contemporary culture

Exile as Forced Migrations John J. Ahn, 2010-11-29 Exile as Forced Migrations injects cutting edge studies on forced migrations DIDPS IDPs Refugee studies displacement and resettlement and generational issues that mark the exilic period 6th century B C E Founder and co chair of the Exile Forced Migrations in Biblical Literature Society of Biblical Literature and a member of the American Sociological Association International Migration Section Ahn furnishes biblical scholars with up to date sociological information to examine critically the exile as forced migrations in the cadre of economics of migrations Biblically speaking Ahn isolates the three varying views on the exile The 70 years in Babylon is cast as three and a half generations with each Judeo Babylonian generation first 1 5 second third responding to its own set of issues and concerns Ps 137 Jer 29 Isa 43 Num 32 This definitive work reframes the approach to study of the exilic period as generation units sociologically from the first forced migration in 597 B C E to the first return migrations in 538 B C E Exile as Forced Migrations goes beyond traditional emphasis on an important edifice and its institution It rightfully returns to peoples in flight and plight

Interpreting Exile Brad E. Kelle, Frank Ritchel Ames, Jacob L. Wright, 2012 Introductory essays describe the interdisciplinary and comparative approach and explain how it overcomes methodological dead ends and advances the study of war in ancient and modern contexts Following essays written by scholars from various disciplines explore specific cases drawn from a wide variety of ancient and modern settings and consider archaeological anthropological physical and psychological realities as well as biblical literary artistic and iconographic representations of displacement and exile

Displacement and Exile Abhijit Dasgupta, 2016 The lack of knowledge of cross border displacement is a serious problem in our understanding of the societies of South Asia Millions of people have been affected by cross border displacement We know far too little about the displacement about the lives in exile This study examines the complex relations between the state and the displaced in the Indian states of West Bengal and Tamil Nadu

Exile and Nomadism in French and Hispanic Women's Writing Kate Averis, 2017-07-05 Women in exile disrupt assumptions about exile belonging home and identity For many women exiles home represents less a place of belonging and more a point of departure and exile becomes a creative site of becoming rather than an unsettling state of errancy Exile may be a propitious circumstance for women to renegotiate identities far from the strictures of home appropriating a new freedom in mobility Through a feminist politics of place displacement and subjectivity this comparative study analyses the novels of key contemporary Francophone and Latin American writers Nancy Huston Linda Le Malika Mokeddem Cristina Peri Rossi Laura Restrepo and Cristina Siscar to identify a new nomadic subjectivity in the lives and works of transnational women today

Exiled Intellectuals: Encounters, Conflicts, and Experiences in Transnational Context Latife Akyüz, Hakan Altun, Eylem Çamuroğlu Çığ, Melehat Kutun, 2024-11-04 Right after the Gezi Resistance a new tendency of authoritarianism rapidly emerged in Turkey and AKP government started targeting anyone it perceives as a threat to its rule especially academics journalists politicians actors directors i e the intellectuals who produce oppositional art and critical knowledge criminalizing them as enemies of the state The authoritarian regime has permeated every aspect of economic social cultural and political life institutionalized primarily through the ongoing state of emergency declared in the wake of the July 15 2016 coup attempt one might also consider this as a controlled and manipulated toxoid coup This new climate has started to limit the opportunities of production and reproduction for the intellectuals and artists and even holding a dissident stance became a source of risk on its own The Republic of Turkey limited oppressed and punished the means of expression by giving one of the harshest and maybe the most violent reactions of its history against critical thought and opposition The culture of democracy which was almost already non existent has been completely abolished through the suspension of democracy on the ostensible level This ongoing period is one in which producers of critical knowledge and opposing artists are being faced with immense oppression and penal sanctions One of the outcomes of this process is a kind of new nomadism that we can sketch out as leaving behind And one of the forms of this leaving is voluntary or involuntary exile The majority of those whom we call new exile intellectuals today have relocated generally to Western Europe Great Britain the United States and especially to Germany This new wave of political forced migration which started in the aftermath of the Gezi uprisings and gained momentum following the coup attempt has been defined by the editors of the book as new exile in order to draw a framework as it has some unique characteristics different from the previous waves The fundamental property of this experience is the simultaneous mobilization of intellectual capital and bi polar opposition This oppositional stance is both against the dominant global order and against German style authoritarianism as well as Turkish style fascism It is bi polar in the context of exile The form of the opposition in question has the ability to take root in the lands it arrives at It does not point towards a single direction forward or backward and a single place the place it was ruptured it is here now and multidirectional This state of new exile bears the efforts of existing critical knowledge and art producers in the heim to which they have relocated as critical knowledge and art producers are opposed to the dominant world system as well as to fascism in Turkey As political subjects of the resistance against authoritarianism they are continuously and collectively fighting against the structural fate of displacement As both subjects and researchers of this current state of new exile it is our primary responsibility to understand and produce knowledge of these intellectuals responses in this new life to monitor the creation processes of the new mechanisms to cope with the challenges and to understand investigate the effects of all these on the transnational social space We have tried to determine the content of this book based on our own experiences as new exiled intellectuals We believe that in this period of new exile we are subjects and witnesses of a historic period due to our individual struggle for existence as well as our modes of organization and solidarity as a group of new exiled intellectuals On one hand we know that while transforming ourselves we pave the way for mutual interaction and the transformation of the structures in which we relate This is precisely why the motivation behind the idea of compiling this book lies not only in academic concerns such as analyzing the process and contributing to the literature on new exile but also in keeping a record of our own stories creating memories of our new exilic lives strategies of existence solidarity and experiences of activism and in sharing them with intellectuals around the globe who face the same fate We believe that this book with academic analyses and personal stories of new exile intellectuals from different professions will also serve as a guide for the steps towards transnational collaborations

Envisioning Taiwan June Yip, 2004-10-07 Traces the growth and evolution of a Taiwan s sense of itself as a separate and distinct entity by examining the diverse ways a discourse of nation has been produced in the Taiwanese cultural imagination

Refugees and Knowledge Production Magdalena Kmak, Heta Björklund, 2022-02-13 Building on research within the fields of exile studies and critical migration studies and drawing links between historical and contemporary refugee scholarship this volume challenges the bias of methodological nationalism and Eurocentrism in discussing the multifaceted forms of knowledge emerging in the context of migration and mobility With critical attention to the meaning production and scope of refugee scholarship generated at the institutions of higher education it also focuses on refugee knowledge produced outside academia and scrutinizes the conditions according to which it is validated or silenced

Presenting studies of historical refuge and exile together with the experiences of contemporary refugee scholars this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in forced migration refugee studies the sociology of knowledge and the phenomenon of insider knowledge and research methods and methodology The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Exile Luis Maldonado, 1999

Trauma and Traumatization in Individual and Collective Dimensions Eve-Marie Becker, Jan Dochhorn, 2014-10-01 The contributors of this volume demonstrate how a highly developed expertise in interpreting Biblical and cognate literature is a substantial part of the overall discourse on the historical literary social political and religious dimensions of trauma in past and present This idea is based on the assumption that trauma is not only a modern concept which derives from 20th century psychiatry It is an ancient phenomenon already which predates modern discourses Trauma studies will thus profit from how Theology specifically Biblical exegesis and the Humanities deal with trauma in terms of religion history sociology and politics

Exile through a Gendered Lens G. Zinn, 2012-03-14 This interdisciplinary anthology highlights exiled alienated women in literature history and cinema Contributors investigate when and how women from diverse backgrounds have been relegated to the margins in order to shed light on the state of alienhood that stems from gendered otherness

Phenomenology of Broken Habits Line Ryberg Ingerslev, Karl Mertens, 2024-07-12 This volume explores the phenomenology of broken habits and their affective social and involuntary dimensions It shows how disruptive experiences impact self understanding and social embeddedness The chapters in this volume investigate the epistemic and existential relevance of breakdown of habits and the corresponding kinds of self understanding available to the agent The first part focuses on the double sidedness of habitual life On the one hand habits allow us to arrange and navigate in a familiar home world on the other hand habits can take hold of us in such a way that we lose our sense of autonomy The contributors argue that habitual agency is structurally carried by a dynamic that entails both freedom and necessity As habits enable us to inhabit and thus acquire a world they also affectively provide a texture and a background for our feeling at home in the world The chapters in Part 2 focus on the breakdowns of our habitual social and technological life forms and the phenomenology of their affective texture History and habitual learning are sedimented in our body memory and in our language and these sedimented layers are partly out of our direct control Part 3 focuses on the structural openness of habits in relating to one's past and one's traumatic experiences Part 4 reflects on the ways in which we might become aware of and thus transform or appropriate our culturally given habits Phenomenology of Broken Habits will appeal to researchers and advanced students working in phenomenology philosophy of mind and philosophy of psychology

The Work of Memory Alon Confino, Peter Fritzsche, 2002 Coming to terms with a troubled past is the mark of the modern condition But how does memory operate This powerful collection of original essays probes this question by focusing on Germany where historical trauma and political turbulence over the past century have deeply scarred modern memory and identity Tracing the role of memory in German history between the Reformation and reunification contributors show how memory has a history and the presence of the past has historical context With scholarly zeal and keen insight these essays draw on ghost stories and the postwar fiction of Heinrich Böll among other memory sites escorting the reader through the streets of Alt Hildesheim and the grocery aisles of East Germany By historicizing memory this volume surpasses the efforts of previous memory scholarship in confronting Germany's National Socialist past Standard approaches to memory in modern Germany have explored how the past represents social relations and is commemorated in literature art and personal narrative In taking memory out of the museum and beyond the monument The Work of Memory investigates the ways memory forms social relations and is integral to the construction of identities communities and policies Profound and provocative The Work of Memory contributes to a much needed anthropology of memory in modern Germany

Tibet in Exile Shalini Mittal, Aditya Anshu, 2025-02-19 This book delves deep into the lived experiences of the Tibetan diaspora offering an insightful exploration through the intersecting lenses of politics psychology and culture Drawing from the expertise of scholars in fields such as political science sociology psychology and cultural studies the book provides a rich multidisciplinary analysis that reveals the complexities of Tibetan life in exile It meticulously examines the delicate diplomacy between the Tibetan government in exile and host nations unraveling the intricate political dynamics that shape the aspirations and challenges faced by Tibetans abroad In addition to political analysis the book sheds light on the psychological resilience and cultural innovation within the Tibetan community Through an exploration of art music literature and religious practices it uncovers how Tibetans have creatively reimagined and redefined their cultural identity in the face of displacement and adversity This volume is an essential resource for students researchers and educators in anthropology political science sociology psychology and cultural studies It also serves as a valuable tool for policymakers advocates and activists engaged in issues of diaspora migration human rights and social justice For anyone seeking to understand the profound impact of exile the endurance of cultural identity and the strength of community this book is a must read This version aims to be more engaging while clearly defining the book's scope relevance and target audience

Performativity and the Representation of Memory: Resignification, Appropriation, and Embodiment Dinis, Frederico, 2024-08-21 The age of digital culture has not only brought significant transformations in how we perceive memory history and heritage but it has also raised pressing questions about authenticity and ownership of memory The role of digital technologies in shaping collective identities is a topic of intense scrutiny Moreover contemporary societies grapple with complex issues in the politics of memory especially with the proliferation of diverse narratives and the manipulation of public spaces The book's content is therefore highly relevant offering critical reflection and scholarly analysis to these societal challenges Performativity and the Representation of Memory: Resignification Appropriation and Embodiment offers a comprehensive exploration of these issues examining how contemporary practices of re enactment intersect with digital contexts to shape our understanding of memory and heritage The book analyzes the processes of memory creation and transmission in digital environments providing a nuanced understanding of how memory is constructed shared and contested in the digital age It also explores the role of arts based research and participatory practices in documenting and preserving collective memories offering insights into new forms of memory sharing and identity formation

Writings of Exile in the English Revolution and Restoration Philip Major, 2016-02-11 Writings of Exile in the English Revolution and Restoration opens a window onto exile in the years 1640 1680 as it is experienced across a broad spectrum of political and religious allegiances and communicated through a rich variety of genres Examining previously undiscovered and understudied as well as canonical writings it challenges conventional paradigms which assume a neat demarcation of chronology geography and allegiance in this seminal period of British and American history Crossing disciplinary lines it casts new light on how the ruptures and in some cases liberation of exile in these years both reflected and informed events in the public sphere It also lays bare the personal psychological and familial repercussions of exile and their attendant literary modes in terms of both inner mental withdrawal and physical displacement

Mythologies of Internal Exile in Elizabethan Verse A.D. Cousins, 2018-10-26 Writers of the English Renaissance like their European contemporaries frequently reflect on the phenomenon of exile an experience that forces the individual to establish a new personal identity in an alien environment Although there has been much commentary on this phenomenon as represented in English Renaissance literature there has been nothing written at length about its counterpart namely internal exile marginalization or estrangement within the homeland This volume considers internal exile as a simultaneously twofold experience It studies estrangement from one's society and correlatively from one's normative sense of self In doing so it focuses initially on the sonnet sequences by Sidney Spenser and Shakespeare which is to say the problematics of romance then it examines the verse satires of Donne Hall and Marston likewise the problematics of anti romance This book argues that the authors of these major texts create mythologies via the myths of and accumulated mythographies about Cupid satyrs and Proteus through which to reflect on the doubleness of exile within one's own community These mythologies at times accompanied by theologies of alienation suggest that internal exile is a fluid and complex experience demanding multifarious reinterpretation of the incongruously expatriate self The monograph thus establishes a new framework for understanding texts at once diverse yet central to the Elizabethan literary achievement

Creation - Transformation - Theology Margit Eckholt, 2022 The social and cultural challenges posed by the increasing threat to creation climate change destruction of biodiversity etc are the starting point for new philosophical ethical and theological reflections on the relationship between God human beings and the world as presented in this volume God's creative impulse which transforms anew is at work in the actions of human beings and challenges us in view of the threat to the house of life earth to go new ways that make a common and good life possible Creation and transformation are interrelated an ecological theology of creation and practice of sustainability to be developed in the European context is to be embedded in the horizon of a global liberating theology
