Vogeler,1984 Humanity ,1893 Ruskin and Social Reform Gill Cockram,2007-04-27 In the first book to analyse the form and influence of Ruskin s social theory Gill Cockram looks at Ruskin s significant contribution to social and intellectual thought in the late 19th and early 20th centuries In a field often overlooked by 19th century historians Ruskin and Social Reform clarifies for the first time how Ruskin s social theory was disseminated to a much wider readership than was evident in the mid nineteenth century and how it was that Ruskin achieved great prominence as a social philosopher Cockram examines the chronological development of Ruskin s thought and establishes the extent of his influence among the nascent labour movement It was the support of a thinker as original and as unconventional as Ruskin that helped to challenge the laissez faire conformities of classical economics and launched the quest to find a more ethical and humane basis for social policy making Essays ... With an Introduction by Frederic Harrison. [With a Portrait.]. Thomas Carlyle,Frederic Harrison,1904 Empire and Imperial Ambition Mira Matikkala,2010-11-01 The late nineteenth century is generally thought of as a period of imperial enthusiasm and fervour however beneath the surface there were currents of disquiet and discontent In this book Mira Matikkala examines the modes of thought that were described as anti imperialist in the period 1878 1901 She argues that the common ground between the various critics of imperialism was that they all declared to represent true Englishness in contrast to what they regarded as a distorted imperial identity Previous research has largely embraced the imperialist conception and definition of British imperialism as empire patriotism and general empire pride This has led to a failure to understand the fact that late Victorian anti imperialists comprehended imperialism differently They drew a clear distinction between the empire and imperialism the empire signifying mainly emigration colonisation and the spontaneous spread of English liberal values in the form of the settler empire whereas imperialism as British authoritarian rule in the dependencies was regarded as the negation of the same liberal spirit which the colonies propounded Unlike colonisation imperialism was seen as a new departure in British politics representing anti constitutionalism distorted imperial patriotism militarism aggression and irrational jingoism In contrast to these imperialist manifestations the anti imperialists emphasised the long line from 1688 liberty and constitutional rights in the form of industry and freedom at home and peace fair dealing and moderation abroad In their view these traditional English values constituted true Englishness and any true patriotism would be founded on them The late Victorian debate on imperialism can be loosely grouped into three main categories discussed in the three main parts of the book economy and imperial expansion ethics and the nature of progress and practical politics Empire and the Imperial Ambition will be a significant contribution to the fields of British intellectual history and political thought Cosmopolitanism in Conflict Dina Gusejnova,2017-10-14 This book is the first study to engage with the relationship between cosmopolitan political thought and the history of global conflicts Accompanied by visual material ranging from critical battle painting to the photographic representation of ruins it showcases established as well as emerging interdisciplinary scholarship in global political thought and cultural history Touching on the progressive globalization of conflicts between the eighteenth and the twentieth century including the War of the Spanish Succession the Seven Years War the Napoleonic wars the two World Wars as well as seemingly internal civil wars in eastern Europe s imperial frontiers it shows how these conflicts produced new zones of cultural contact The authors build on a rich foundation of unpublished sources drawn from public institutions as well as private archives allowing them to shed new light on the British Russian German Ottoman American and transnational history of international thought and political engagement The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940

Between Literature and Science Wolf Lepenies,1988 The theme of this book is the conflict which arose in the early nineteenth century between on the one hand the literary and on the other hand the scientific intellectuals of Europe as they competed for recognition as the chief analysts of the new industrial society in which they lived This conflicts was epitomised by the confrontation between Matthew Arnold and T H Huxley and later in that between F R Leavis and C P Snow Sociology was born as the third major discipline though in many ways it was a hybrid of the literary and the scientific traditions The social sciences continue even today to oscillate between these two traditions The author chronicles the rise of the new discipline by discussing the lives and work of the most prominent thinkers of the time in England France and Germany These include John Stuart Mill H G Wells Beatrice and Sidney Webb and T S Eliot Auguste Comte Charles Peguy Emile Durkheim Stefan George Thomas Mann Max Weber and Karl Mannheim At stake was the right to formulate a philosophy of life for contemporary society and to predict and pre empt the worst consequences of industrialization The book presents a penetrating study of idealists grappling with reality when industrial society was still in its infancy It will be of interest to those studying sociology and its history as a discipline but it is equally relevant to other social science subjects which may be said to have arisen at about the same time Back cover After Chartism Margot C.
