Executive Education Process Practice And Evaluation:

Executive Education Albert A. Vicere, 1989 Essays discuss executive development corporate education practices university education strategic implications of executive education and training evaluation

Organizational Capability Dave Ulrich, Dale G. Lake, 1991-01-16 For any organization to compete successfully in today's market it must focus on building not only from the outside but from the inside as well Shows the correlation between successful people management and the bottom line Explains how involving employees in the planning and implementation process and allowing them to see the fruits of their labor the sense of connection between daily work and long term customer success benefits the organization The aim here is to show how focusing on organizational capability will not only meet short term financial requirements but also build a solid foundation for the future

The HR Value Proposition David Ulrich, Wayne Brockbank, 2005-05-11 The international best seller Human Resource Champions helped set the HR agenda for the 1990s and enabled HR professionals to become strategic partners in their organizations But earning a seat at the executive table was only the beginning Today's HR leaders must also bring substantial value to that table Drawing on their 16 year study of over 29 000 HR professionals and line managers leading HR experts Dave Ulrich and Wayne Brockbank propose The HR Value Proposition The authors argue that HR value creation requires a deep understanding of external business realities and how key stakeholders both inside and outside the company define value Ulrich and Brockbank provide practical tools and worksheets for leveraging this knowledge to create HR practices build organizational capabilities design HR strategy and marshal resources that create value for customers investors executives and employees Written by the field's premier trailblazers this book charts the path HR professionals must take to help lead their organizations into the future Ulrich is a professor at the University of Michigan School of Business and the author of 12 books and more than 100 articles on the subject of human resources Brockbank is a clinical professor of business at the University of Michigan School of Business the author of award winning papers on HR strategy and an adviser to top global organizations

Why the Bottom Line Isn't! Dave Ulrich, Norm Smallwood, 2003-05-26 Offers a broad view of leadership and shareholder value based on multiple business disciplines In Why the Bottom Line Isn't authors Dave Ulrich and Norm Smallwood argue that sustainable shareholder value comes increasingly from assets not accounted for on an organization's balance sheet These assets include a company's reputation its ability to attract talent and its ability to react quickly to new opportunities in the marketplace Why the Bottom Line Isn't harnesses research from a number of disciplines including human resources finance and leadership to establish a hierarchy of such intangibles The authors extrapolate from these intangibles to establish leadership tools that will help create sustainable shareholder value The book offers a broad expansive perspective on leadership while eschewing convoluted theory for concrete practice Dave Ulrich Ph D DOU UMICH EDU has been listed by BusinessWeek as the top guru in management education He has co authored 10 books and over 100 articles serves on the Board of Directors of Herman Miller and has consulted with over half of the Fortune 200 companies He is currently on professional leave as Professor at the University of Michigan to serve as Mission President for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints in Montreal Norm Smallwood nsmallwood@rbl.net is co founder of Results Based Leadership www.rbl.net which provides education and consulting services based on this book as well as the ideas in Results Based Leadership How Leaders Build the Business and Improve the Bottom Line which he co authored with Ulrich He has led leadership development business strategy organization capability change management and HR projects for a wide variety of clients spanning multiple industries
