Exercises In Lip Pointing:

Exercises in Lip Pointing Marie Annharte Baker, 2003 Exercises in Lip Pointing is a new collection of poems by respected First Nations writer Annharte. She uses oral sounds and written signs to probe and prod the reader to ask the right questions to lay bare the contradictions and delights in the serendipities of her experience. She makes us laugh, cry and learn. Poets Talk Pauline Butling, Susan Rudy, 2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry. Using the relaxed format of the personal interview, Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s. Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub-literary forms. Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work, how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks. Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan-African liberation movements. Annharte explains her use of humour to de-program Native people. Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world. Recalling Recitation in the Americas Janet Neigh, 2017-11-29 Spoken word is one of the most popular styles of poetry in North America. While its prevalence is often attributed to the form's strong ties to oral culture, Recalling Recitation in the Americas reveals how poetry memorization and recitation curricula shaped by British Imperial policy influenced contemporary performance practices. During the early twentieth century, educators frequently used the recitation of canonical poems to instill proper speech and behaviour in classrooms in Canada, the Caribbean, and the United States. Janet Neigh critically analyses three celebrated performance poets: E. Pauline Johnson (1861-1913), Langston Hughes (1902-1967), and Louise Bennett (1919-2006), who refashioned recitation to cultivate linguistic diversity and to resist its disciplinary force. Through an examination of the dialogues among their poetic projects, Neigh illuminates how their complicated legacies as national icons obscure their similar approaches to resisting Anglicization. Recalling Recitation in the Americas focuses on the unexplored relationship between education history and literary form and establishes the far-reaching effects of poetry memorization and recitation on the development of modern performance poetry in North America.

In the Belly of a Laughing God Jennifer Andrews, Jennifer Courtney Elizabeth Andrews, 2011-01-01 In the Belly of a Laughing God examines how eight contemporary Native women poets in Canada and the United States employ humour and irony to address the intricacies of race, gender, and nationality. The Volta Review, 1928 A Short History of English Henry Cecil Wyld, 1914 Jacaranda Live It Up 2 VCE Physical Education Units 3&4, 5e learnON & Print Sally Nelson, Kirsty Walsh, Paul Stockdale, Andrew Hamilton, James W.
