Existence And Presence The Dialectics Of Divinity:

Existence and Presence Laurence L. Cassidy, 1981 The Philosopher's Index, 1993 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Dialectical Theology and Jacques Ellul Jacob E. Van Vleet, 2014 Argues that the work of Jacques Ellul is frequently misread on account of inattention to the theological underpinning that governs Ellul's thought This book offers an introduction to Ellul's thought his contribution to theology and philosophy and how his philosophy of technology is both theologically informed and culturally relevant Routledge Encyclopedia of Philosophy: Index Edward Craig, 1998 Volume seven of a ten volume set which provides full and detailed coverage of all aspects of philosophy including information on how philosophy is practiced in different countries who the most influential philosophers were and what the basic concepts are A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Spencer Moffatt, 2024-12-15 A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Exploring Dialectics and Becoming through Amos Yong and Slavoj Žižek invites readers to consider a dialectical theology for the third millennium grounded in nonduality and expressed from a pentecostal perspective Amos Yong has laid a valuable foundation for such an approach though his work stops short of fully achieving nondualism Despite highlighting diverse voices within pentecostal theology through Pentecost inspired themes systematic complexity and interdisciplinary input Yong still speaks of God in dualistic terms This work identifies missed opportunities to move beyond dualism and addresses them through a coherent nondualistic framework With the aid of Slavoj Žižek the pentecostal imagination reconfigures the essential themes of Yong's theology resulting in a fresh take on pentecostal theology committed to the richness of connection and the expansive potential of becoming Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Daniel J. Treier, Walter A. Elwell, 2017-11-07 This bestselling reference tool has been a trusted resource for more than 25 years with over 165 000 copies sold Now thoroughly updated and substantially revised to meet the needs of today's students and classrooms it offers cutting edge overviews of key theological topics Readable and reliable this work features new articles on topics of contemporary relevance to world Christianity and freshened articles on enduring theological subjects providing comprehensive A-Z coverage for today's theology students The author base reflects the increasing diversity of evangelical scholars Advisory editors include D Jeffrey Bingham Cheryl Bridges Johns John G Stackhouse Jr Tite Ti nou and Kevin J Vanhoozer Karl Barth's Critically Realistic Dialectical Theology Bruce L. McCormack, 1997 McCormack is master of this voluminous material He is scrupulously at home in the intricate dramatic background of Swiss socialist politics The result is a masterly study often as compelling as its theme George Steiner Times Literary Supplement This meticulous and definitive study supersedes most previous interpretations Colin Gunton Theological Book Review it should quickly attain classic status It is an exceptionally fine and erudite piece of work The results of this painstaking attention to detail are truly ground breaking This is a major intellectual achievement an interpretative act of great courage and Barth studies will never look the same Graham Ward Expository Times This book is a new major intellectual biography of perhaps the most influential theologian of the twentieth century Karl Barth It offers the first full scale revision of the well known theologian Hans Urs Balthasar's seminal interpretation of Barth which was first published in 1951 Drawing on a wealth of material much of it unpublished during Barth's lifetime as well as a thorough acquaintance with the best of recent German scholarship Professor McCormack demonstrates that the fundamental decision which would control the whole of Barth's development the turn to a new critically realistic form of theological objectivism was already made during the years in which Barth was at work on his first commentary on Romans Professor McCormack further argues that the most significant subsequent decisions both material and methodological were made in Barth's Göttingen Dogmatics of 1924-5 and not later in the 1931 book on Anselm as has often been alleged Finally he seeks to show that von Balthasar's description of a turn from dialectic to analogy which provided the foundation for the neo orthodox reading of Barth in the English speaking world fails to take seriously enough the extent to which dialectic remained a constitutive feature of Barth's outlook in the Church Dogmatics This unique and important work provides not simply a fresh interpretation of Barth's development but also a new paradigm for understanding the whole of Barth's theology

Hermeneutic Humility and the Political Theology of Cinema Sean

Desilets, 2016-06-10 This book revisits the tradition of Western religious cinema in light of scholarship on St Paul's political theology The book's subtitle derives from the account in the Book of Acts that St Paul was temporarily blinded in the wake of his conversion on the road to Damascus In imitation of Paul the films on which Sean Desilets's analysis hinges including those of Carl Th Dreyer Robert Bresson Pier Paolo Pasolini and Carlos Reygadas place a god blind mechanism the camera between themselves and the divine Desilets calls the posture they adopt hermeneutic humility hermeneutic in that it interprets the world but humble in that it pays particular even obsessive attention to its own limits Though these films may not consciously reflect Pauline theology Desilets argues that they participate in a messianic hermeneutic tradition that runs from Paul through St Augustine Blaise Pascal Karl Barth and Walter Benjamin and which contributes significantly to contemporary discussions in poststructuralist literary theory political theology and religious studies Desilets's insightful explication of Jean Luc Nancy's deconstruction of Christianity and Giorgio Agamben's recent work on religion makes a substantial contribution to film philosophy and emerging critical trends in the study of religion and film This book puts forward a nuanced theoretical framework that will be useful for film scholars students of contemporary political theology and scholars interested in the intersections of religion and media

A Theology of Compassion Oliver Davies, 2016-08-05 The wholesale rejection of metaphysics today has become the test of the postmodern In this groundbreaking volume Oliver Davies argues for a renewal of metaphysics as the language of createdness based not in a return to outmoded concepts of essence but in a dynamic new understanding of ontology as narrative and performance This repairing of the Western metaphysical tradition is grounded both in the divine self naming in Exodus which for the rabbis identified God's presence in the world with God's compassionate acts and in the compassionate resistance of Etty Hillesum and Edith Stein to the violence of the Holocaust Building on a new metaphysics of compassion that is attentive to the histories of the contemporary world Davies offers a renewed systematic theology of divine speech and relation focused in Jesus Christ who as the triadic Word of God speaks creatively at the heart of human culture and action and who as the redeeming Compassion of God regenerates the world

Theology and Contemporary Continental Philosophy Colby Dickinson, 2018-12-31 This book aims to put modern continental philosophy specifically the sub fields of phenomenology existentialism hermeneutics deconstruction critical theory and genealogy into conversation with the field of contemporary theology Colby Dickinson demonstrates the way in which negative dialectics or the negation of negation may help us to grasp the thin or non existent borders between continental philosophy and theology as the leading thinkers of both fields wrestle with their entrance into a new era With the declining place of the sacred in the public sphere we need to pay more attention than ever to how continental philosophy seems to be returning to distinctly theological roots Through a genealogical mapping of 20th century continental philosophers Dickinson highlights the ever present Judeo Christian roots of modern Western philosophical thought Opposing categories such as immanence transcendence finitude infinitude universal particular subject object are at the center of works by thinkers such as Agamben Marion Vattimo Levinas Latour Caputo and Adorno This book argues that utilizing a negative dialectic allows us to move beyond the apparent fixation with dichotomies present within those fields and begin to perform both philosophy and theology anew

A Theology of Criticism Michael P. Murphy, 2008-01-09 A number of critics and scholars argue for the notion of a distinctly Catholic variety of imagination not as a matter of doctrine or even of belief but rather as an artistic sensibility They figure the blend of intellectual emotional spiritual and ethical assumptions that proceed from Catholic belief constitutes a vision of reality that necessarily informs the artist s imaginative expression The notion of a Catholic imagination however has lacked thematic and theological coherence To articulate this intuition is to cross the problematic interdisciplinary borders between theology and literature and although scholars have developed useful methods for undertaking such interdisciplinary border crossings relatively few have been devoted to a serious examination of the theological aesthetic upon which these other aesthetics might hinge In A Theology of Criticism Michael Patrick Murphy proposes a new framework to better define the concept of a Catholic imagination He explores the many ways in which the theological work of Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 can provide the model content and optic for distinguishing this type of imagination from others Since Balthasar views art and literature precisely as theologies Murphy surveys a broad array of poetry drama fiction and film and sets it against central aspects of Balthasar's theological program In doing so Murphy seeks to develop a theology of criticism This interdisciplinary work recovers the legitimate place of a distinct theological imagination in critical theory showing that Balthasar's voice both challenges and complements contemporary developments Murphy also contends that postmodern interpretive methodology with its careful critique of entrenched philosophical assumptions and reiterated codes of meaning is not the threat to theological meaning that many fear On the contrary by juxtaposing postmodern critical methodologies against Balthasar's visionary theological range a space is made available for literary critics and theologians alike More important the critic is provided with the tools to assess challenge and celebrate the theological imagination as it is depicted today

The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson, 2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx's account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson's interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Drama of the Divine Economy Paul M. Blowers, 2012-10-11 The theology of creation interconnected with virtually every aspect of early Christian thought from Trinitarian doctrine to salvation to ethics Paul M Blowers provides an advanced introduction to the multiplex relation between Creator and creation as an object both of theological construction and religious devotion in the early church While revisiting the polemical dimension of Christian responses to Greco Roman philosophical cosmology and heterodox Gnostic and Marcionite traditions on the origin constitution and destiny of the cosmos Blowers focuses more substantially on the positive role of patristic theological interpretation of Genesis and other biblical creation texts in eliciting Christian perspectives on the multifaceted relation between Creator and creation Greek Syriac and Latin patristic commentators Blowers argues were ultimately motivated less by purely cosmological concerns than by the urge to depict creation as the enduring creative and redemptive strategy of the Trinity The drama of the divine economy which Blowers discerns in patristic theology and piety unfolded how the Creator invested the end of the world already in its beginning and thereupon worked through the concrete actions of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit to realize a new creation

Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-12-19 The Swiss

Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology. In this monograph David Gilliland offers an account of Brunner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation: Law and Gospel. He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law-gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology. After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method, Gilliland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology, The Mediator (1927). In light of the preceding analysis, the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth, Nature and Grace (1934). The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth.

Essays in Ecumenical Theology I Ivana Noble, 2018-11-26. In the first volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology, Ivana Noble depicts differences between what she calls a sectarian outlook and one which engages in the search for common roots, dialogical relationships, and shared mission in a world that has largely become post-Christian but often also post-secular. Drawing on both Western and Orthodox scholarship and expressing her own positions, Noble sketches what ecumenical theology is, how it is linked to spirituality, the methods it uses, how it developed during the twentieth century, and the challenges it faces. Specific studies deal with controversial interpretations of Jan Hus, Catholic Modernism, the problematic heritage of the totalitarian regimes, and responses to the current humanitarian crisis.

Wrestling with God Steven T. Katz, Shlomo Biderman, Gershon Greenberg, 2007-01-04. Publisher description: The Nature of Theology Haight SJ, Roger, 2022-09-08. Describes the logic of Christian theology by sidestepping an abstract analysis of the discipline and offering a relatively clear structure of the discipline of theology that is responsive to our current situation.

The Mother of God in the Theology of Sergius Bulgakov Walter Nunzio Sisto, 2017-10-25. This book explores the Mariology of one of the most unique and fascinating thinkers in the Russian Orthodox tradition, Father Sergius Bulgakov. Bulgakov develops the Russian sophianic mariological tradition initiated by Vladimir Soloviev and argues that Mary is the soul of the world or the pneumatological hypostasis. Mary is the first and greatest disciple to be adopted by the Holy Spirit. By situating Mary within the life and mission of the Holy Spirit, Bulgakov maintains the respect and veneration that Orthodox Christians have for Mary but also places Mary squarely within the community of disciples. Mary is a model disciple who reveals that the goal of the spiritual life is spiritual motherhood. In addition, this text reveals the relevance and importance of Bulgakov's contribution to the contemporary discussion about the role of Mary in the history of salvation.
