Experiencing the Postmetaphysical Self Fionola Meredith, 2004-12-14 This book charts and challenges the bruising impact of post Saussurean thought on the categories of experience and self presence It attempts a reappropriation of the category of lived experience in dialogue with poststructuralist thinking Following the insight that mediated subjectivity need not mean alienated selfhood Meredith forwards a postmetaphysical model of the experiential based on the interpenetration of poststructuralist thinking and hermeneutic phenomenology Since poststructuralist approaches in feminist theory have often placed women s lived experiences under erasure Meredith uses this hermeneutic deconstructive model to attempt a rehabilitation of the singular flesh and blood female existent Desire beyond Identity Wesley N. Barker, 2025-04-01

Arguing for a radical return to desire in Luce Irigaray s thought this book decisively intervenes in impasses around questions of identity that continue to confound contemporary discourse and politics By prioritizing the disruptive potential of desire rather than sexual difference Wesley N Barker extends Irigaray s relational theory of becoming into new territory opening generative often surprising pathways for conversation with philosophies of race queer theory political theology decolonial theory and posthuman thought As a source for reimagining materiality desire is pulled free of a phallocentric white colonial framework and mobilized toward a philosophy of living capable of addressing the twenty first century s multifaceted crises of identity representation and embodiment Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2017-10-24

A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher s ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity The SAGE Handbook of Historical Theory Nancy
