authors remove the anxiety about online teaching for those thinking about on screen instruction and provide new thinking and examples for those already immersed in it It is a great guide for those entering the field and a superb resource for those actively engaged in it Anthony J Bent Chairman Global Studies 21st Century Skills Committee of the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents Book Features The building blocks necessary to create a successful online course The know how of long time online instructors Models for Skype conferencing with groups of students Templates for course building including sample assignments activities assessments and emails Detailed treatment of diversity in the online environment Joan Thormann is professor in the division of Technology in Education at Lesley University Cambridge Massachusetts She edits a column on technology and special needs for Learning and Leading with Technology Isa Kaftal Zimmerman is the principal of IKZ Advisors in Boston Massachusetts an educational consulting firm serving educators and stakeholders in the Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields Instructional Design for LIS Professionals Melissa A. Wong, 2019-05-03 A concise practical guide to effectively teaching current and future librarians in graduate programs professional settings and beyond Many librarians are thrust into positions where they are asked to teach colleagues Others choose to share their knowledge and experience by preparing the next generation of librarians in graduate programs However few such librarians have received any formal education in instructional design In this book Melissa A Wong an expert instructional designer helps information professionals to prepare for their roles as teachers of current and future librarians Covering topics that range from syllabus construction to evaluation and student feedback the book offers practical guidance on how to communicate with and support learners and how to come up with assignments and grade them along with advice on accessibility issues and working with technologies such as LMS OER videos and PowerPoint It demonstrates how to adapt principles of effective teaching to settings including workshops professional development courses conference presentations and staff training It also discusses professional challenges such as managing workload and shows how to adapt formal coursework to informal teaching situations Librarians who wish to learn new methods or improve on their teaching and course design skills should read this book Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, Karl Brown, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Helen E. Wessells, 1914 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Issued also separately Curriculum-Based Library Instruction Amy Blevins, Megan Inman, 2014-09-26 The rampant nature of technology has caused a shift in information seeking behaviors In addition current trends such as evidence based medicine and information literacy mean that one time instructional sessions cannot provide our patrons with all of the skills they need For this reason many librarians are working to develop curriculum based instruction that is semester long or consisting of many sessions throughout an academic program In addition to teaching librarians are also becoming embedded in the curriculums they support by serving as web based course designers problem based learning facilitators or members of curriculum committees Although it is fairly obvious that library instruction is important and that librarians should be equipped to provide this instruction the majority of ALA accredited programs offer only one course on library instruction the courses are only available as electives and they are often only offered once a year Librarians need to gain their instructional experiences through real life experiences mentors and of course books like this one Many books commonly discuss one shot sessions and provide tips for getting the most out of that type of instruction There are not as many that discuss curriculum based instruction in a section let alone an entire book Curriculum Based Library Instruction From Cultivating Faculty Relationships to Assessment highlights the movement beyond one shot instruction sessions specifically focusing on situations where academic librarians have developed curriculum based sessions and or become involved in curriculum committees This volume describes and provides examples of librarians varied roles in the curriculum of education programs These roles include semester long or multi session instructor web based course designer problem based learning facilitator and member of a curriculum committee In addition to describing the roles that librarians have in supporting curriculum the book describes how to carry out those roles with sections devoted to adult learning theory teaching methods developing learning objectives and working with faculty to develop curriculum Examples of library sessions devoted to information literacy evidence based practice information literacy and biomedical informatics are included This book is not limited to one mode of delivering information and covers examples of face to face distance and blended learning initiatives
