Shockley, 2020 CAMPUS UPRISINGS captures the voices and spirit of student activists, faculty, administration and staff as they protest the racial and social injustices that occurred in communities like Ferguson, Missouri and elsewhere and to demonstrate the power and value of principled non-violent activism to provoke change The Flat World and Education Linda Darling-Hammond, 2015-04-17 Argues that the education system in America needs to make drastic changes in order to build a system of high-achieving and equitable schools that protects every child's right to learn Uncivil Rights Jonna Perrillo, 2012-05-15 Almost fifty years after Brown v. Board of Education, a wealth of research shows that minority students continue to receive an unequal education. At the heart of this inequality is a complex and often conflicted relationship between teachers and civil rights activists, examined fully for the first time in Jonna Perrillo's Uncivil Rights, which traces the tensions between the two groups in New York City from the Great Depression to the present. While movements for teachers' rights and civil rights were not always in conflict, Perrillo uncovers the ways they have become so, brought about both by teachers who have come to see civil rights efforts as detracting from or competing with their own goals and by civil rights activists whose aims have de-professionalized the role of the educator. Focusing in particular on unionized teachers, Perrillo finds a new vantage point from which to examine the relationship between school and community, showing how in this struggle educators, activists, and especially our students have lost out Curriculum Leadership Allan A. Glatthorn, Floyd Boschee, Bruce M. Whitehead, 2009 A one-of-a-kind resource written for teachers and administrators who want to successfully restructure and enhance school curriculum. Back cover Education Research in the Public Interest Gloria Ladson-Billings, William F. Tate, 2014-04-15 Acclaimed African American scholar and teacher educator Gloria Ladson-Billings examines the field of teacher education through the accomplishments and contributions of well-known African American teacher educators: Lisa Delpit, Carl Grant, Jacqueline Jordan Irvine, Geneva Gay, Cherry McGee Banks, William Tate, and Joyce King. Using in-depth interviews and storytelling, Ladson-Billings depicts deeply personal portraits of these scholars' experiences to confront race and racism not only theoretically but within their everyday professional lives in the Big House of the academy. Ladson-Billings gives these portraits even greater resonance and meaning by pairing these teacher educators with historical figures such as Harriet Tubman, Nat Turner, and Charlotte Forten, whose contributions to the struggle for social justice are a wellspring of hope and courage to all educators and a tribute to African Americans whose political, scientific, and spiritual efforts made life better for us all. This compelling book is important reading for all educators who want to transform teacher education for the better. The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education is enthused and excited about Ladson-Billings's dynamic and provoking scholarship. Its focus on outstanding African American teacher educators is a major contribution to teacher education literature. This cutting-edge research is likely to prompt some of the best of unconventional teacher education thought. David G. Imig, President and CEO, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. In this moving and original book, Gloria Ladson-Billings offers complex insights about the politics of scholarship the experiences of scholars of color in universities and the larger enterprise of teaching and teacher education for social justice Marilyn Cochran Smith Lynch School of Education Boston College and President of the American Educational Research Association AERA for 2004 05
