

Welcome to our special Map of the Month display of flags! These are flags from different countries around the world. This issue was inspired by all the beautiful flags that fly at Olympic games.

Flags are everywhere! They are used by cities, clubs, religions, and political groups. In some a few, sailors use flags at sea, often to give signals. Kings, queens and presidents all have their own flags. A pirate flag was called a Jolly Roger, with a black background and white figures, sometimes a skull! Native Americans often used feathers as a pole as a flag.

Research to find out why these flags look the way they do. Keep in mind that flags are often symbols of a country's history or culture. Using a good reference book and some colored pencils, color in each flag. Have fun!
